Introduction and Procedural History of this Appeal

The employer appeals a decision by a review examiner of the Department of Unemployment Assistance (DUA) to award the claimant benefits following her separation from employment on September 25, 2023. We review, pursuant to our authority under G.L. c. 151A, § 41, and affirm.

On October 27, 2023, the agency initially determined that the claimant was not entitled to unemployment benefits. The claimant appealed, and both parties attended the hearing. In a decision rendered on December 13, 2023, the review examiner reversed the agency determination, concluding that the claimant involuntarily left employment for urgent, compelling, and necessitous reasons and, thus, was not disqualified under G.L. c. 151A, § 25(e)(1). The Board accepted the employer's application for review.

Ruling of the Board

After considering the recorded testimony and evidence from the hearing, the review examiner's decision, and the employer's appeal, we conclude that the review examiner's decision is based on substantial evidence and is free from any error of law affecting substantive rights.

The review examiner's decision is affirmed. The claimant is entitled to receive benefits for the week beginning September 24, 2023, and for subsequent weeks, if otherwise eligible.

In addition, the UI Online record-keeping system indicates that the employer was relieved of benefit charges related to the claim on September 24, 2023, and has not been charged for the claimant's benefits at any time. As of December, 2023, the claimant's benefit payments have been issued through the DUA's solvency account in accordance with G.L. c. 151A, § 14(d)(3).
