Introduction and Procedural History of this Appeal

The employer appeals a decision by a review examiner of the Department of Unemployment Assistance (DUA) to award the claimant benefits following her separation from employment on June 16, 2024. We review, pursuant to our authority under G.L. c. 151A, § 41, and affirm.

On July 17, 2024, the agency initially determined that the claimant was entitled to unemployment benefits. The employer appealed, and both parties attended the hearing. In a decision rendered on August 31, 2024, the review examiner affirmed the agency determination, concluding that the claimant did not receive reasonable assurance of re-employment in the next academic term, and, thus, she was not disqualified pursuant to G.L. c. 151A, § 28A. The Board accepted the employer's application for review.

Ruling of the Board

After considering the recorded testimony and evidence from the hearing, the review examiner's decision, and the employer's appeal, we conclude that the review examiner's decision is based on substantial evidence and is free from any error of law affecting substantive rights.

We note that the DUA's electronic record-keeping system, UI Online, shows that the employer has not been charged for the benefits paid under this claim.

The review examiner's decision is affirmed. The claimant is entitled to receive benefits for the week beginning June 23, 2024, and for subsequent weeks if otherwise eligible.
