TRAIL DESCRIPTIONS

- Bay Circuit Trail - From Newbury, MA to Duxbury, MA. Visit www.baycircuit.org for additional information.
- Bob's Trail - .7 mi. (40 min.) Connecting trail between the Bay Rd. entrance and the farmhouse fields. Ideal for mountain biking because of its twists and rocky ridges.
- Boulder Trail - .25 mi. (10 min.) Trail passes an enormous glacial erratic known as the Ames Boulder.
- French Trail - .33 mi. (20 min). Connecting trail from the Northwest Trail to the West Side Trail.
- Friends Trail - .9 mi. (50 mi.) Connects the east end of the Ridge Trail to the Morse Trail. Relatively easy walking.
- Granite Hills Trail - Upper Loop .75 mi., Lower Loop 1 mi. (1 3/4 hr.). Double loop trail on rocky terrain. Many geological features including granite outcroppings, glacial erratics and low lying swamp areas.
- Morse Loop Trail - .9 mi. (50 min.) Old wood hauling roads that pass through hemlock woods. Easy walking although access trails to the Morse Loop Trail are rocky.
- NEMBA Trail - .7 mi. (45 min.) Challenging trail for mountain bikers. Walkers will enjoy the high ridges and unusual turns.
- Northwest Trail - 1.25 mi. (1 1/4 hrs.) From north shore of Leach Pond to Massapoag Ave. in Sharon. Gently sloping, good for cross-country skiing.
- Pond Edge Trail - .5 mi. (30 min.) Follows southern edge of Leach Pond. Narrow and flat but has exposed tree roots on much of the trail. No mountain bikes or horses permitted.
- Pond Walk - 2.9 mi. of unpaved carriage road.
- Quarry Loop Trail - .8 mi. (45 min). Loop Trail, part of which was an old road used to haul granite from Moyles' Quarry.
- Quiet Woods Trail - .25 mi. (15 mi.) Connects park road to Pond Edge Trail at Leach Pond, ending in a white pine grove. No mountain bikes or horses permitted.
- Ridge Trail - 1.2 mi.((1 1/4 hr.). Over granite outcroppings and old woods roads, parts of this trail are difficult for walking.
- Rockland St. Trail - .9 mi. (50 min.) This trail connects an interior park road to Rockland St.
- Split Rock Trail - .25 mi. (15 min.) Connecting trail between the Northwest Trail and the Granite Hills Trail. Located on the trail is a 20-foot high glacial boulder, split down the center, for which the trail is named.
- Swamp Trail - .3 mi. (20 min.) Goes through what remains of a white cedar swamp. Includes short boardwalk. No mountain bikes or horses permitted.
- West Side Trail - .7 mi. (30 min.) Easy walk, although there is a short rocky section.

*Trail lengths are only for specific trails. When walking, please give yourself extra time so you can reach your vehicle before dark.
