DECISION

RUSSIAN BENEVOLENT SOCIETY
14-20 LINDEN STREET
BOSTON, MA 02134
LICENSE#: 011600532
VIOLATION DATE: 09/01/2016
HEARD: 02/14/2017

Russian Benevolent Society (the "Licensee") holds an alcohol license issued pursuant to M.G.L. c. 138, §12. The Alcoholic Beverages Control Commission (the "Commission") held a hearing on Tuesday, February 14, 2017, regarding an alleged violation of 204 CMR 2.05 (2) Permitting an illegality on the licensed premises, to wit: M.G.L. c. 138, §34C- Possession of an alcoholic beverage by a person under twenty-one (21) years of age (7 counts). The above captioned occurred on September 1, 2016 according to Investigator Temple's report.

The following documents are in evidence:

1. Investigator Temple's Investigative Report dated September 1, 2016;
2. Fraudulent Massachusetts Driver's License of Underage #2;
3. Fraudulent Massachusetts Driver's License of Underage #1;
4. Fraudulent Pennsylvania Driver's License of Underage #3;
5. Fraudulent Ohio Driver's License of Underage #4;
6. Fraudulent Delaware Driver's License of Underage #5;
7. Fraudulent Rhode Island Driver's License of Underage #6; and
8. Fraudulent Ohio Driver's License of Underage #7.

There is one (1) audio recording of this hearing.

The Commission took Administrative Notice of the Licensee's record.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. On Thursday, September 01, 2016, at approximately 11:00 p.m., Investigators Kujawski, Lordan, Di Cicco and Temple, along with Chief Investigator Mahony ("Investigators") conducted an investigation of the business operation of Russian Benevolent Society to determine the manner in which its business was being conducted.

2. Investigators observed several youthful appearing individuals, on the right side of the outdoor patio, who were in possession of alcoholic beverages. Investigators identified themselves and asked to see proof of legal age.
3. Underage #1, actual date of birth 6/02/1997 (age 20) was in possession of a vodka mixed drink. He presented Investigators with a false Massachusetts driver's license.
4. Underage #2, actual date of birth 4/04/1997 (age 20) was in possession of a vodka mixed drink. He presented Investigators with a false Massachusetts driver's license.
5. Investigators observed several youthful appearing individuals, on the left side of the outdoor patio, who were in possession of alcoholic beverages. Investigators identified themselves and asked to see proof of legal age.
6. Underage #3, actual date of birth 10/14/1996 (age 18) was in possession of a vodka mixed drink. He presented Investigators with a false Pennsylvania driver's license.
7. Underage #4, actual date of birth 10/12/1997 (age 18) was in possession of a vodka mixed drink. He presented Investigators with a false Ohio driver's license.
8. Investigators observed an unidentified female who was unsteady on her feet, had glassy eyes and heavy eyelids. She walked over to Underage #3 who handed his alcoholic beverage to her. Underage #5, actual date of birth 6/03/1997 (age 19) presented Investigators with a false Delaware driver's license. Underage #5 stated that she had consumed a vodka drink on the premises.
9. Investigators observed several more youthful appearing individuals, on the right side of the outdoor patio, who were in possession of alcoholic beverages. Investigators identified themselves and asked to see proof of legal age.
10. Underage #6, actual date of birth 12/04/1996 (age 19) was in possession of a vodka cranberry drink. She presented Investigators with a false Ohio driver's license.
11. Underage #7, actual date of birth 6/20/1996 (age 19) was in possession of a vodka cranberry drink. She presented Investigators with a false Ohio driver's license.
12. Investigators identified all the underage individuals to the manager on duty, Lazarius Askitis.
13. All of the underage individuals were provided safe transportation home.
14. Investigators informed Mr. Askitis of the violations and that a report would be filed with the Commission for review.

DISCUSSION

Licenses to sell alcoholic beverages are a special privilege subject to public regulation and control, Connolly v. Alcoholic Beverages Control Comm'n., 334 Mass. 613, 619 (1956), for which States have especially wide latitude pursuant to the Twenty-First Amendment to the United States Constitution. Opinion of the Justices, 368 Mass. 857, 861 (1975). The procedure for the issuance of licenses and required conduct of licensees who sell alcoholic beverages is set out in M.G.L. c. 138.

M.G.L. c. 138 gives the Commission the authority to grant, revoke and suspend licenses. Chapter 138 was "enacted ... to serve the public need and ... to protect the common good." M.G.L. c. 138, §23. "[T]he purpose of discipline is not retribution, but the protection of the public." Arthurs v. Bd. of Registration in Medicine, 383 Mass. 299, 317 (1981) (emphasis supplied). The Commission is given "comprehensive powers of supervision over licensees." Connolly, 334 Mass. at 617.

The Commission may make regulations for “clarifying, carrying out, enforcing and preventing violation of” statutory provisions for the “method of carrying on the business of any licensee,” and “for the proper and orderly conduct of the licensed business.” M. G.L. c. 138, §24. The Commission has exercised this authority through the promulgation of regulations that are codified at chapter 204 of the Code of Massachusetts Regulations (“CMR”). The Commission also has comprehensive powers of supervision over licensees and has the statutory authority under M.G.L. c. 138, § 64 to revoke or suspend a license for violation of a regulation. Aristocratic Restaurant of Massachusetts, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverages Control Comm’n, 374 Mass. 547 (1978); Connolly, 334 Mass. at 617.

A Commission regulation promulgated at 204 CMR 2.05(2) provides that “[n]o licensee for the sale of alcoholic beverages shall permit any disorder, disturbance or illegality of any kind to take place in or on the licensed premises. . . .” The law is well-settled that “under the regulation, [204 CMR 2.05(2)] the responsibility of the licensee is to exercise sufficiently close supervision so that there is compliance with the law on the premises. A vendor who sells alcohol is ‘bound at his own peril to keep within the condition of his license.’” Rico’s of the Berkshires, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverages Control Comm’n, 19 Mass. App. Ct. 1026, 1027 (1985) (quoting Commonwealth v. Gould, 158 Mass. 499, 507 (1893)). The Licensee violated this regulation by permitting illegalities on its premises on December 17, 2015.

The Licensee was charged with a violation of 204 CMR 2.05 (2) to wit: c. 138, §34C - Possession of an Alcoholic Beverage by a Person Under Twenty-One (21) Years of Age, seven (7) counts. General Laws chapter 138, §34 provides, in part, that “[w]hoever makes a sale or delivery of any alcoholic beverage or alcohol to any person under 21 years of age, either for his own use or for the use of his parent or any other person, . . . shall be punished.” The Appeals Court has stated that “the purpose of the statute [is] to protect the welfare of children from the danger of alcohol.” Tobin v. Norwood Country Club, Inc., 422 Mass. 126, 133-134 (1996); accord Fran’s Lunch, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverages Control Comm’n, 45 Mass. App. Ct. 663, 664 (1998). General Laws chapter 138, §34C states, in pertinent part, that: “[w]hoever, being under twenty-one years of age and not accompanied by a parent or legal guardian, knowingly possesses any alcohol or alcoholic beverages, shall be punished.”

The Commission was presented with evidence that seven minor patrons presented fraudulent identifications to enter the premises.

M.G.L. c. 138, § 34B offers protection from license revocation or criminal penalties to license holders who reasonably rely on one (1) of four (4) pieces of identification specified in the statute, including a valid Massachusetts driver's license. The Commission has established that to obtain the protection accorded to a license holder under §34B, a license holder must obtain proof of age prior to the purchase of alcoholic beverages and also must obtain proof of age on the day of the alleged sale to a minor. The Appeals Court has reviewed this Commission interpretation and upheld it as reasonable. Howard Johnson Company v. Alcoholic Beverages Control Comm’n, 24 Mass. App. Ct. 487 (1987); In Re: Alan C. Dinh d/b/a Juliano’s Beer & Wine (ABCC Decision April 8, 2005).

Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 138, §34B offers protection from license suspension or revocation or criminal penalties to license holders who reasonably rely on one of four (4) pieces of identification specified in the statute, including a valid Massachusetts driver’s license. However, Section 34B refers only to the activities of delivery and sale, and it omits any reference to the act of possession. See M.G.L. c. 138, §34B. Consequently, Section 34B offers no relief from liability for allowing possession of alcoholic beverages in violation of Section 34C.

The Commission finds that on September 1, 2016, seven individuals who were younger than 21 (twenty-one) years of age were inside the licensed premises in possession of alcoholic beverages. The Commission finds that the Licensee committed the violation of 204 CMR 2.05 (2) Permitting an illegality on the licensed premises, to wit: M.G.L. c. 138, §34C- Possession of an alcoholic beverage by a person under twenty-one (21) years of age (7 counts).

CONCLUSION

Based on the evidence, the Commission finds the Licensee violated 204 CMR 2.05 (2) Permitting an illegality on the licensed premises, to wit: M.G.L. c. 138, §34C- Possession of an alcoholic beverage by a person under twenty-one (21) years of age (7 counts). Therefore the Commission suspends the license for a period of thirty (32) days of which sixteen (16) days will be served, and sixteen (16) days will be held in abeyance for a period of two (2) years provided no further violations of Chapter 138 or Commission Regulations occur.
