

BRIDGING<sup>the</sup> DIVIDE:
MENTAL HEALTH AND CANCER CARE
4th Annual Symposium

 @EndtheInequity | MGHEngage@partners.org

Save the Date
FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 2020

Boston Marriott Cambridge
50 Broadway, Cambridge, MA
Kendall Square

ENGAGE

REGISTER TODAY!

CEUs available!

Engage with us at the 4th Annual Bridging the Divide Symposium!

- Learning from patient, caregiver, and clinician narratives
- Communicating effectively about hopes and fears: Palliative care, survivorship, and loneliness
- Spotlighting innovative partnerships and best practices at the intersection of mental health and cancer care
- Advocating for meaningful policy change: Mental health parity
- Diversifying stakeholders: Fostering communication across disciplines and institutions
- Extending our reach: Communicating science to the public to influence change

We are excited to welcome the following speakers (and more!):

- Ahmed Hankir, MBChB – Associate Professor of Psychiatry, Carrick Institute for Graduate Studies
- Chris Friese, PhD, RN – Director, Center for Improving Patient and Population Health, UMichigan
- Ryan Nipp, MD, MPH – Oncologist, Gastrointestinal & Geriatric Oncology, MGH Cancer Center
- Kelly Trevino, PhD – Director, Psycho-Oncology of Cancer and Aging Program, MSKCC
- Karen Fortuna, MSW, PhD – Assistant Professor of Psychiatry, Dartmouth
- Senator Cindy Friedman – Massachusetts State Senator, Chair, Joint Committee on Health Care Financing

The event is FREE and all are welcome!

CEUs are available for a small fee.

Please register – space is limited!

Sincerely,

Kelly Irwin, Amy Corveleyn, and the Cancer and Mental Health Collaborative

For questions or more information, please contact: MGHEngage@partners.org

Thank you to the Cancer and Mental Health Collaborative for planning this event:

MASSACHUSETTS GENERAL
PHYSICIANS ORGANIZATION

Dana-Farber/Harvard
Cancer Center
dfhcc.harvard.edu