FACTS

1. On Friday, November 8, 2013, at approximately 8:00 p.m., Investigators Teehan and Kelleher conducted an investigation of the business operation of Northeast Package Store LLC dba GPS Wine & Spirits to determine the manner in which its business was being conducted.
2. During the course of the night, while in an undercover capacity, the investigators viewed five separate groups of individuals leave the licensed premises with alcoholic beverages in their possession.
3. The first group of individuals that the investigators observed was in a motor vehicle, containing four youthful looking male individuals. The car pulled into the parking lot. Investigators observed the four males exit the vehicle and enter the licensed premises.
4. Moments later, investigators observed the four males return to their vehicle with alcoholic beverages in their possession. Investigators approached the individuals and requested identification for proof of age.
5. Brian Coakley, actual date of birth [REDACTED] (age 20) provided investigators with a false identification in the name of Daniel Goode, date of birth [REDACTED] (age 21). Mr. Coakley was in possession of two 40-ounce bottles of Keystone Ice beer, one 40-ounce bottle of Coors Light beer and one 40-ounce bottle of Miller Light beer.
6. Carmen Dello Iacono, actual date of birth [REDACTED] (age 20) provided investigators with a false Connecticut identification. Mr. Dello Iacono was in possession of one 1.75-liter bottle of Smirnoff Vodka, two 1.75-liter bottles of Jim Beam whiskey, and three 1.75-liter bottles of Fireball whiskey.
7. Robert Chester, actual date of birth [REDACTED] (age 19). Mr. Chester stated that he did not have a false identification on his person and that the clerk did not request identification from him. Mr. Chester was in possession of one 750 ml bottle of Kettle One vodka, one 750-ml bottle of Sailor Jerry rum, one 1.75-liter bottle of Smirnoff vodka, and one 7.5-ounce can of Four Loco.
8. Liam Smith, actual date of birth [REDACTED] (age 18). Mr. Smith was in possession of two 40-ounce bottles of Colt 45 beer, one 40-ounce bottle of Old English beer, one 40-ounce bottle of Steel Reserve beer, one 750-ml bottle of Ciroc Peach vodka, and one 7.5-ounce can of Four Loco.
9. Investigators confiscated the alcoholic beverages as evidence.
10. The Licensee provided three separate sales slips detailing the alcoholic beverages outlined above. As a result, the Commission finds that three sales were made to Brian Coakely, Carmen Dello Iacono, and Liam Smith, all underage individuals. The investigators observed the second group of individual at approximately 8:30 p.m. A Veteran's Taxicab pulled into the parking lot and two male individuals exited the taxi and entered the liquor store.
11. Minutes later investigators observed the two male individuals exit the premises with alcoholic beverages in their possession. Investigators approached the individuals and requested identification for proof of age.
12. Both parties initially hesitated and then responded, "We aren't 21." They then provided investigators with their true identities as well as the fraudulent identifications which they used to conduct their transaction.
13. Eric Lavoie, actual date of birth [REDACTED] (age 18) provided investigators with a false Maryland license identification. Mr. Lavoie was in possession of one 30-pack Natural Ice beer cans, and one 1.75-liter bottle of Rubinoff Blue Raspberry vodka.

14. John Walker, actual date of birth [REDACTED], (age 18) provided investigators with a false Rhode Island license identification. Mr. Walker was in possession of two 40-ounce bottles of Miller High Life beer.
15. The Licensee provided one sales slip, which accounted for some of the alcoholic beverages in the possession of both individuals. It did not account for the Rubinoff Blue Raspberry Vodka. As a result, the Commission finds that the Licensee made sales of alcoholic beverages to both Mr. Lavoie and Mr. Walker both who are underage individuals. Investigators confiscated the alcoholic beverages as evidence.
16. The third group of individuals arrived at the licensed premises at approximately 9:25 p.m. The investigators observed a motor vehicle with a NY license plate, containing six youthful looking individuals, pull into the parking lot. They observed one female individual exit the vehicle and enter the liquor store.
17. Minutes later investigators observed the same individual exit the premises carrying two brown bags. As she entered the motor vehicle, the other passengers began to shout in celebration.
18. Investigators approached the female individual and asked what was inside the paper bags. She responded, "Champagne."
19. Investigators then requested identification for proof of age. She stated, "I am not 21" and that she "used a fake i.d." to conduct her purchase at the licensed premises.
20. Catherine Vedovino, actual date of birth [REDACTED] (age 19) was in possession of four 750-ml bottles of Andre Strawberry Moscato and one 50-ml bottle of Bacardi Dragonberry rum.
21. Investigators asked the remaining five individuals in the vehicle for proof of age. All were underage but none had entered the liquor store.
22. The Commission finds that the Licensee sold alcoholic beverages to Catherine Vedovino who is an underage individual.
23. The investigators confiscated the alcoholic beverages as evidence.
24. The fourth group of individuals arrived at approximately 9:50 p.m. The investigators observed a motor vehicle with a MA license plate, containing three youthful looking individuals, pull into the parking lot. The investigators observed two individuals exit the vehicle and enter the liquor store.
25. Minutes later investigators observed the individuals exit the premises. The female was in possession of a case of Coors Light beer and a bottle of Captain Morgan's spiced rum. The male was in possession of a case of Budweiser Light beer. All of the alcoholic beverages were placed in the trunk of the motor vehicle.
26. Investigators approached the individuals and requested identification for proof of age.
27. Samantha Lawson, actual date of birth [REDACTED] (age 20) had a false Rhode Island license identification.
28. Patrick McQuaid, actual date of birth [REDACTED] (age 21).
29. The driver of the motor vehicle, whose actual date of birth was [REDACTED] (age 20), did not enter the liquor store.
30. Ms. Lawson admitted to purchasing the alcoholic beverages from the Licensee, as a result, the Commission finds that the Licensee sold alcoholic beverages to Ms. Lawson, who is an underage individual. The investigators confiscated the alcoholic beverages as evidence.

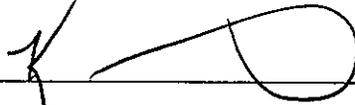

31. The investigators observed the fifth group of individuals in a motor vehicle parked on Route 9 in front of the liquor store. The motor vehicle contained three youthful looking individuals. Investigators observed that the passengers were in possession of two 30-packs Keystone Light beer.
32. Investigators approached the individuals and requested identification for proof of age.
33. Matthew Maraia, actual date of birth [REDACTED] (age 18) had a false Connecticut license.
34. Daniel Decca, actual date of birth [REDACTED] (age 18) had a false Connecticut license.
35. The driver of the motor vehicle, whose actual date of birth [REDACTED] (age 19), did not enter the liquor store.
36. Investigators confiscated the following alcoholic beverages as evidence: two 30-pack Keystone Light beer, one 30-pack Pabst Blue Ribbon beer, two bottles Rubinoff vodka, one bottle Fireball Cinnamon whiskey.
37. As the investigators did not see the individuals enter the store and then exit with alcoholic beverages, the Commission finds that there is no evidence of a sale to a minor.
38. The investigators confiscated the alcoholic beverages as evidence.
39. Investigators entered the licensed premises and identified themselves to Nicholas Young, the owner and licensed manager. They advised Mr. Young of their findings and of acceptable forms of identification which may be reasonably relied on under M.G.L. c. 38, §34b.
40. Investigators informed Mr. Young of the violations and that a report would be submitted to the Chief Investigator for review.
