

150 YEARS
OF ADVANCING
PUBLIC HEALTH

Massachusetts Department of Public Health

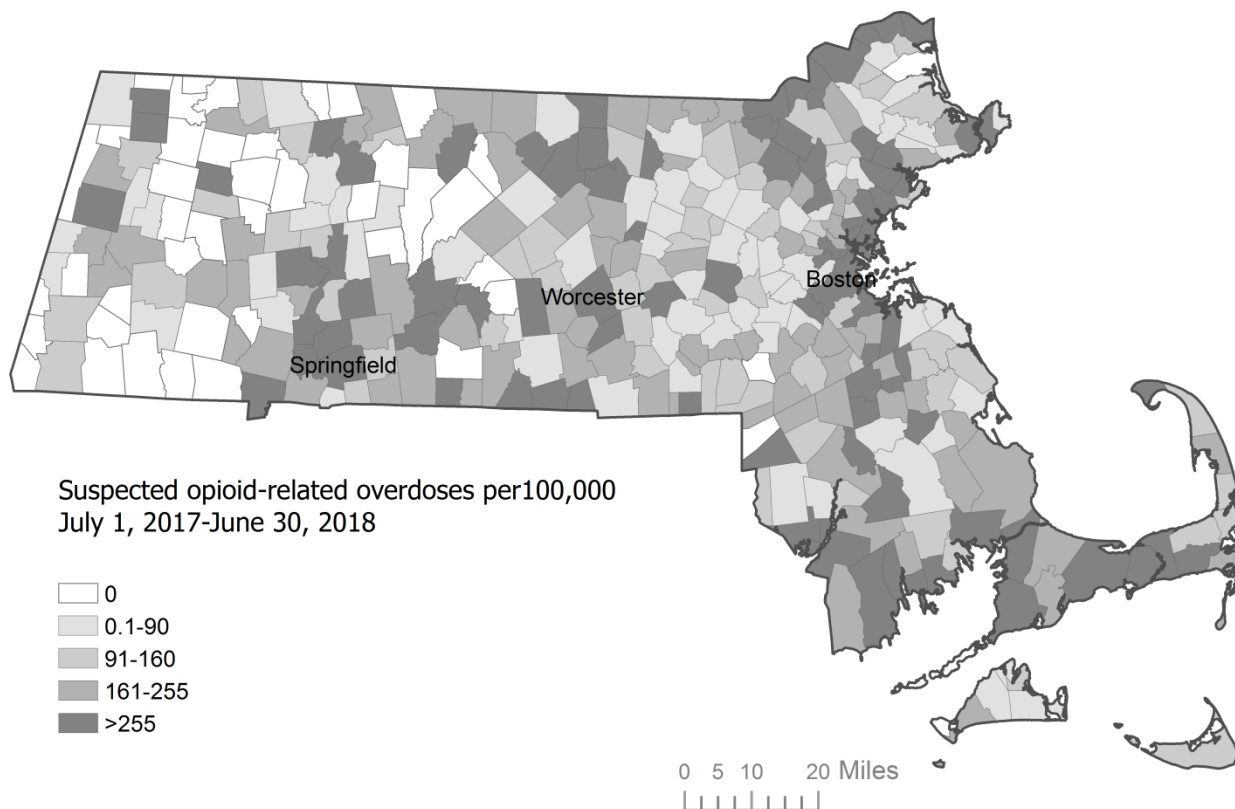

Buprenorphine Provider Capacity in Massachusetts cities and towns July 1, 2017-June 30, 2018

Elizabeth Erdman, MS
Epidemiologist
Special Analytic Projects

Leonard Young, MS
Epidemiologist
Prescription Monitoring Program

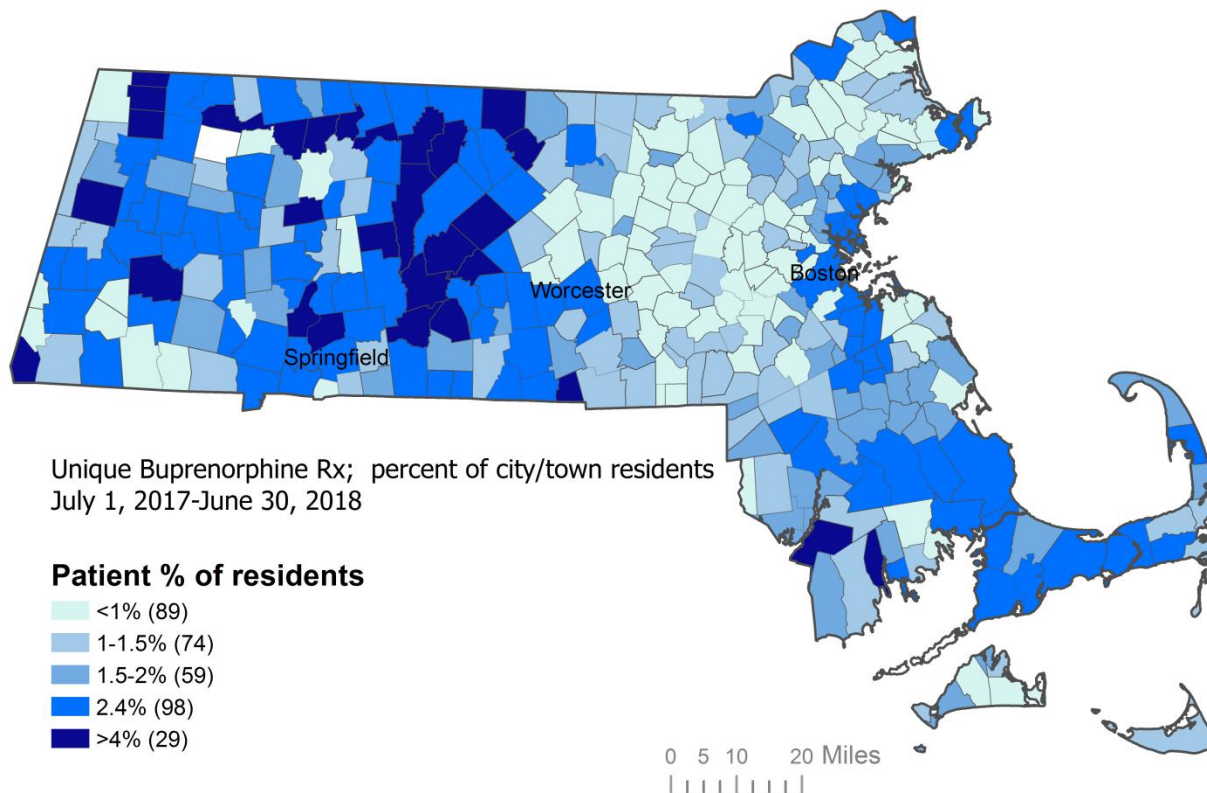

May 21, 2019

Suspected opioid-related overdose rate/ 100,000 City/Town residents

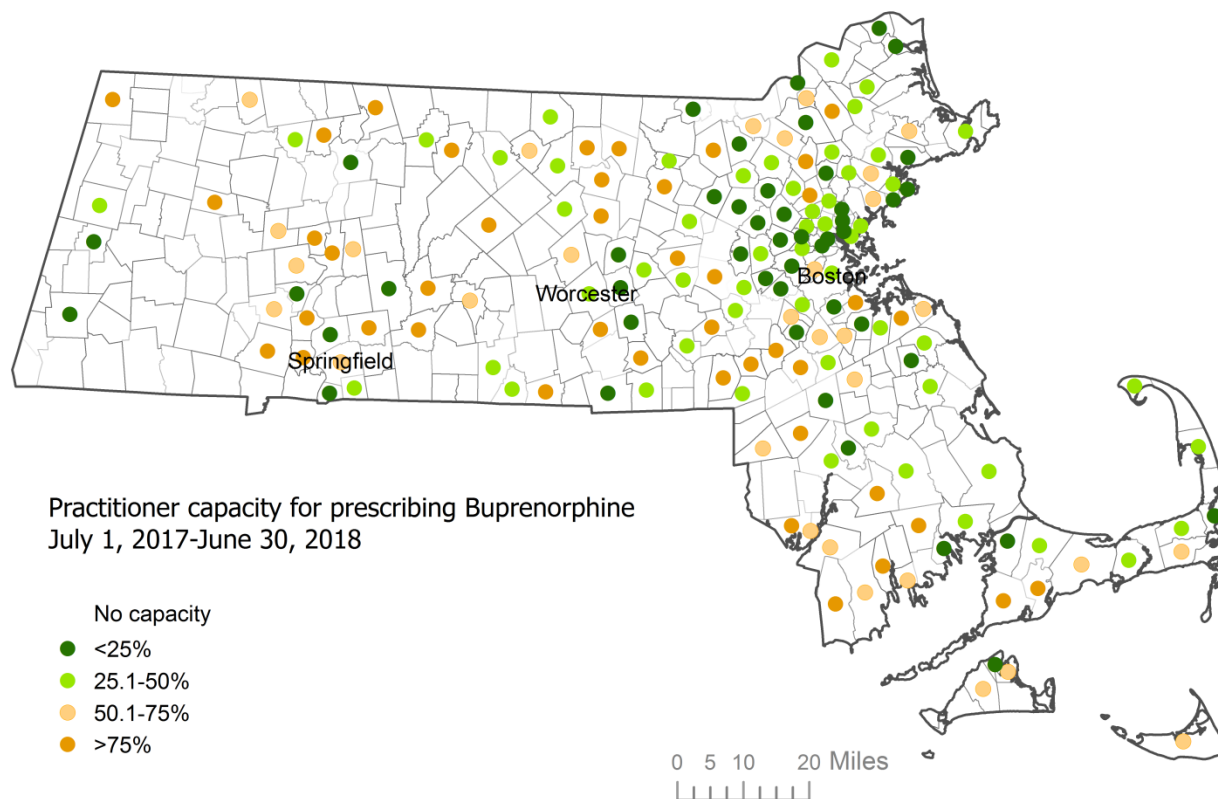

Notes: Suspected opioid-related overdoses from Massachusetts Ambulance Trip Records (MATRIS)
July 1, 2019 through June 30, 2018.
Source: MDPH 2019.

Percentage of MA city/town residents Receiving Buprenorphine Medications

Notes: Unique buprenorphine Prescriptions at resident address from MA Prescription Monitoring Program (PMP) / residents in town/city of address
July 1, 2017 through June 30, 2018
Source: MDPH 2019

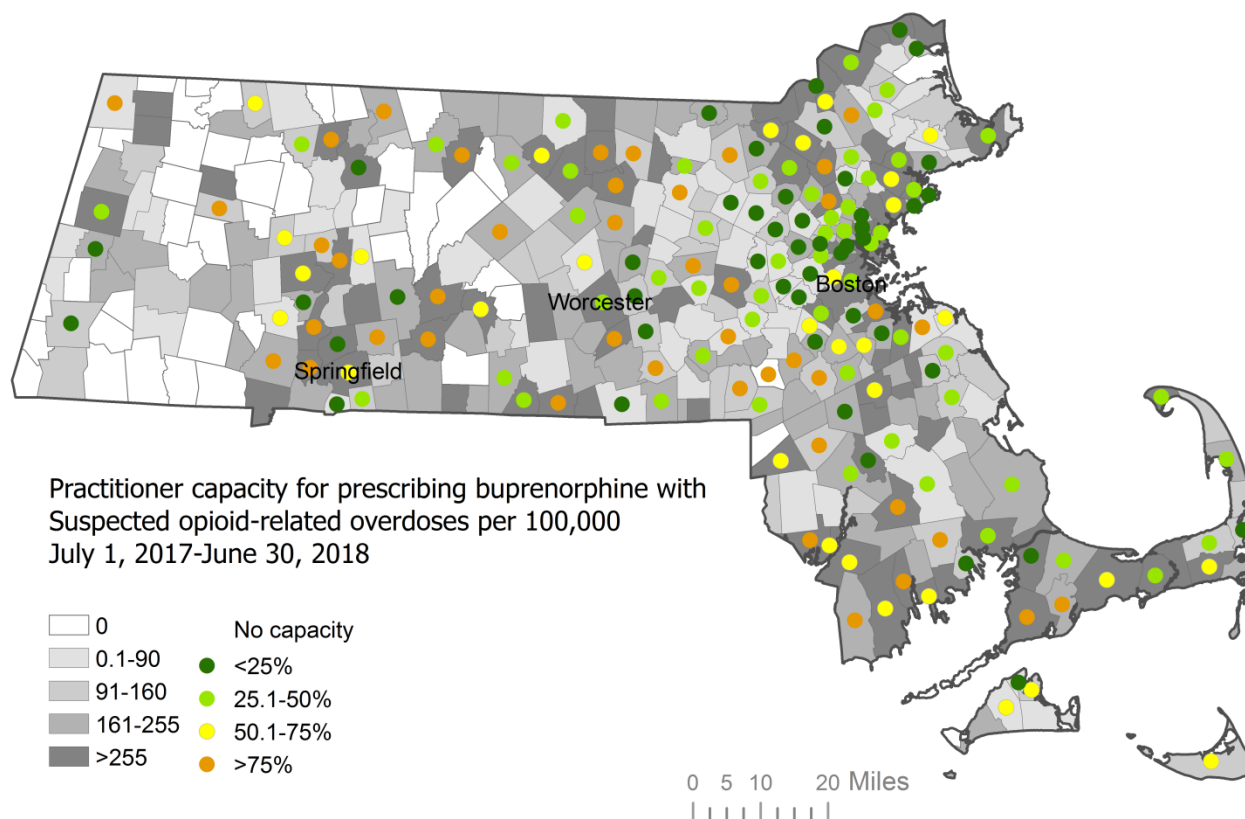

DATA Waiver Capacity (by City/Town FY 2018)

Notes: Practitioner capacity = registered provider Rx capacity/ days of buprenorphine Rx written

Source: MDPH 2019; CSAT 2018

DATA Waiver Capacity and Suspected Overdose Rates in MA (by City/Town)

Notes: Suspected opioid-related overdoses from MATRIS 7.1.2017-6.30.2018.

Practitioner capacity = Registered provider Rx capacity/ days of buprenorphine Rx written

Source: MDPH 2019; CSAT 2018