Bulk Special Fuels License Requirements

Dear Taxpayer,

Any business in the Commonwealth that is maintaining fuel storage, and is engaged in the purchase, sale, use, storage or transportation of bulk special fuels, is required to be licensed for special fuels excise. These fuels include diesel and all liquefied gases, such as propane, and liquefied natural gas (LNG). All combustible gas and liquids, other than gasoline, which propel registered motor vehicles, are special fuels. Only licensed suppliers and user-sellers maintain storage facilities of special fuels. Only licensed suppliers are allowed to make bulk sales of special fuels. Suppliers acquire special fuels on a tax-free basis and collect the tax from user-sellers and users. User-sellers are required to pay the excise on all special fuels acquisitions.

Why am I getting this letter?

Massachusetts law requires a license to operate such a business. These licenses are issued by the Department and are renewable annually. The annual fee is $25.00. M.G.L. c. 64E.

Failure to obtain or renew a proper license may subject you to penalties under M.G.L. c. 62C, § 76 and M.G.L. c. 64E, § 15.

How do I determine what type of license I need?

Supplier License: If you primarily distribute special fuels in bulk, or use fuel in a nontaxable manner, you should apply for a license as a Supplier. Bulk sale customers must be charged the special fuels excise tax unless they are also licensed as a Supplier. All licensed user-sellers or unlicensed customers must pay the excise tax at the time of the bulk purchase. A Supplier must purchase fuel in bulk without paying the tax at the time of purchase. All direct fueling is subject to tax upon sale and should be reported on Sch. C of the SFT-3B. Suppliers are required to file a monthly return (Form SFT-3-B) to provide details of any sales and to report and collect the excise.

User-seller License: Any person who dispenses special fuels from bulk storage into motor vehicles is required to be licensed as a User-seller unless they otherwise qualify to be licensed as a Supplier. A User-seller is required to pay the excise to your vendor at the time of purchasing the fuel. User-sellers file a monthly (informational) return (Form SFT-4) detailing all tax paid fuel activity. User-sellers generally may not resell in bulk.
