On Wednesday afternoon, October 4, 2023, the Holyoke Police Department responded to reports of a shooting at the intersection of Sargeant Street and Maple Street. Based on the subsequent investigation by Holyoke PD Detectives and the Hampden County State Police Detective, it is alleged that three individuals were involved in an altercation where gunshots were exchanged. A pregnant female who was a passenger on a bus in the immediate area was struck by a bullet that killed her unborn baby. Two of the three alleged assailants are in custody and the third has been identified as Kermith D. ALVAREZ. Warrant #2317CR001579 has been issued for ALVAREZ out of Holyoke District Court charging him with Murder with full extradition authorized. ALVAREZ is actively avoiding law enforcement, the firearm used in this incident has not been recovered, and he should be considered Armed and Dangerous.
