Subject: Career Center Day at the State House

Purpose: To encourage the participation of local Workforce Investment Boards, One-Stop Career Center Operators and other local workforce investment partners in promoting Career Center Day at the State House.

Background: The Massachusetts Workforce Professionals Association (MWPA) is pleased to announce that Thursday, March 13, 2014 has been reserved as Career Center Day at the State House.

Exhibits displaying information about all of the Massachusetts One-Stop Career Centers will be set up near the grand staircase. Visitors will meet the Directors, as well as job seekers and businesses who utilize Career Center services in the local regions.

A program will follow that will include speakers from the Patrick Administration and the legislative delegation as well as the presentation of "Workforce Champion Awards."

Additionally, Career Center representatives will schedule individual visits to discuss local services and issues.

The MWPA sincerely hopes that you will join them on this exciting and informative day. Additional information will be provided in the coming weeks.
