Appeal Options

Appeal options include Administrative Review, Mediation, and Fair Hearings. Because most issues can be resolved quickly through the Administrative Review process, most individuals select this option first. Please select which appeal option you would like to pursue.

Administrative Review: An informal meeting conducted by an Administrative Review Officer (ARO) with you, an advocate of your choice, and your MassAbility Career Services Counselor. The ARO will issue a written decision within 30 days of the meeting.

Mediation: A professional mediator will meet with both you and a MassAbility representative to help both parties reach an agreement to resolve the issues in dispute. Mediation is voluntary on the part of all parties.

Fair Hearing: A formal hearing with an impartial Hearing Officer where you, an advocate of your choosing, and MassAbility present evidence about your distinct positions.

Appeals Support

If you would like assistance with the Appeals process, you can contact the Massachusetts Office on Disability Client Assistance Program (CAP) who may provide you with an advocate.
