Your Court Case

If you filed the case, you are the plaintiff. If the case was filed against you, you are the defendant, and you should file your written response to the case, called an Answer, as soon as possible. Contact the Clerk's Office or a Housing Specialist for more information.

Whether you are the plaintiff or the defendant, every time you file a document with the Court, you must make sure the other side gets a copy.

To look up your case file online, please visit: <https://masscourts.org>

E-Filing your documents with the Court

To file any forms, documents, or evidence, you can mail it to the Court or file it electronically through the Court's E-Filing website: <http://www.Efilema.com>. There is no cost to file into an existing case.

Please see the Housing Court E-Filing Guide:
