

Jail Diversion Initiatives

&

The Center
for Police Training
in Crisis Intervention

History of Jail Diversion Programs (JDP)

Overview of Establishment

Background on the creation and purpose

Initial Funding Levels

Original budget allocation and funding sources

Programmatic and Funding Growth

Scope, reach, and financial support

JDP categories

Co-response (embedded clinicians)

Crisis Intervention Team (CIT)

Components programs

Training and curriculum development

Training and Technical Assistance Centers (TTACs)

Behavioral Health Intervention Program (BHIP)

The background features a dark blue silhouette of a human head in profile, facing left. Inside the head is a stylized brain composed of several overlapping circles in shades of purple and blue. A large magnifying glass with a dark handle and frame is positioned over the left side of the brain, focusing on the text.

CIT and Co-response (Overview)

CIT TTAC

CO-RESPONSE TTAC

(Overview)

Number of Interventions

Jail Diversion an Option

86%

Diversion: Statistics and Purposes

Resources

On-scene screening and linkage to appropriate community resources

Statewide onboarding, guidance, and support
for clinicians

Specialized trainings for police and community partners

CENTER

FOR POLICE TRAINING
IN CRISIS INTERVENTION

Data collection
&
Clearinghouse

Training &
Implementation

Research

Community
Focus

Thank you and Questions?

