

Conservation Portrait: Prospect Hill, Waltham

Prospect Hill Park, a wooded 250-acre park with dramatic topography is located on the west side of Waltham near Route 128. An Urban Self-Help grant, now known as the PARC Grant, enabled the city to implement the first phase of the Prospect Hill Park Master Plan. As part of the project, this magnificent view was revealed by the creation of an accessible overlook from the summit of Little Prospect.

