DCR Brook Farm Historic Site (Boston, MA) Conceptual Design Public Meeting 2

Thursday, June 25th @ 6pm – 7:30pm

Register for the meeting via the Zoom Registration Link.

The Department of Conservation and Recreation (DCR) will present the preferred Conceptual Design for the Brook Farm Historic Site, located in the West Roxbury neighborhood of Boston. DCR and their consultant Ray Dunetz Landscape Architecture will present a brief site analysis, a summary of public comment on the two draft Conceptual Plans, and details of the Preferred Conceptual Plan to improve visitor experiences at the National Historic Landmark site.

The public will be invited to provide comments during the meeting, after the presentation, by unmuting their microphones, or the chat functionality that will be available through the virtual participation platform. After the meeting, the presentation will be available for viewing on DCR's Past events for DCR Public Meetings Information web page. DCR encourages the public to share additional feedback, with a deadline for receipt of comments by DCR of July 14, 2026. Comments may be submitted via the DCR public comment portal. Please note that the content of comments you submit to DCR, along with your name, town, and zip code, will be posted on DCR's website. Additional contact information required when commenting, notably email address, will only be used for outreach on future updates on the subject project or property.

If you have agency-related questions or concerns or would like to be added to an email list to receive DCR general or project-specific announcements, please email Mass.Parks@mass.gov or call 617-626-4973.

Online live language interpretation and American Sign Language (ASL) interpretation is available upon request and with advanced notice through this form. Reasonable accommodations for people with disabilities are available upon request and with advanced notice to Melixza G. Esenyie, ADA and Diversity Manager at the Executive Office of Energy and Environmental Affairs, at Melixza.Esenyie2@mass.gov. Include a description of the accommodation that will be needed and please include as much detail as possible. Please also include a way you can be contacted if more information is needed. Last minute requests will be accepted, but it may not be possible to fulfill the request.
