

November 19, 2019

Trouble viewing this email? Copy and paste <https://www.naswa.org/newswire-headlines> into your browser's address bar.

STATE AND TERRITORY NEWS

CA: Newsom speeds unemployment insurance relief due to fires, outages

MA: Acosta--Plan for Tomorrow's Workforce

MA: Baker-Polito Administration Files Unemployment Legislation to Extend Benefits to Relocating Military Spouses

MI: Gov. Whitmer congratulates veteran-friendly institutions

NE: '10 percent' of Nebraska IT's workforce is new graduates

OH: U.S. Dept. of Labor recognizes Youngstown business for hiring veterans

NATIONAL NEWS

Fewer Jobless Americans Tap Unemployment Benefits

Fed Chair Paints Rosy Economic Picture but Says Risks Remain

Smart Workforce System Integration Expands Access to Apprenticeship

Displaced workers need more than what economists are suggesting

Nearly half of states could not cover unemployment insurance in a recession

As Push for Higher Minimum Wages Grows, New York Offers a Test Case

Housing Affordability Burden for U.S. Cities

Five facts about student loans

If People Were Paid by Ability, Inequality Would Plummet

Podcast: The Broken Unemployment Insurance System

Recruiting Foodies and 'Hipnecks' as the New Hunters

Who needs an office? Companies ditch headquarters and connect workers remotely

REPORTS

Realism about reskilling

New Data & Trending in Unemployment Insurance Program Reemployment Metrics

Moving federal jobs out of Washington could work, if it's done correctly

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES, WEBINARS, AND EVENTS

Building a Democratic Economy: How Do We Create Prosperity for All?

Agency Information Collection Activities; Comment Request; Workforce Information Grants to States (WIGS)

ACF Seeks Public Input on Improving Access to Child Care

Proposed Collection; Comments Request-Survey of SNAP and Work

Apprenticeship Grant Opportunities

Disclaimer: News and opinions provided are for information purposes only and do not necessarily reflect policy positions of NASWA. The goods and services produced by affiliates as advertised above are not endorsed by NASWA.

e: naswa@naswa.org | w: naswa.org