MUSEUM

Wednesdays through Sundays
10:30am-4:30pm

The Dighton Rock Museum

Dighton Rock is a 40-ton boulder, etched with carvings. Come experience first-hand this historic landmark, and learn about the people who left their legacy in stone.

Museum tours are available upon request. Check in with park staff to request a tour. For all ages. Tour duration: 15-20 minutes.

The museum will be closed on June 11 for staff training.

PROGRAMS

Saturdays and Sundays
9:00am-10:00am

Taunton River Exploration

The shores of the Taunton River are rich with history and life. Drop by this exciting station to connect the people and animals that call this place home. Stay for a few minutes or the whole hour; there's plenty to see and learn.

You can find the station near the parking area, just a short walk from the Taunton River. For all ages.

SPECIAL EVENT

Sunday, June 14
1:00pm-2:00pm

Birding Talk-and-Walk

Lorie Van Hook will lead a bird walk, along the way sharing info about bird identification and bird watching. Lorie will bring binoculars and a scope for participants to use. For all ages. Dress for the weather and bring binoculars if you have them.
