

HURLEY BLDG.
19 STANIFORD STREET
BOSTON, MA 02114

The Hurley Building is located on the corner of Cambridge and Staniford Streets in Boston's Government Center, between Boston City Hall and Massachusetts General Hospital.

By public transportation, take the:

- Blue Line to Bowdoin Station. The Hurley Building is across New Chardon Street from the station.
- Green Line to Government Center. Walk down Cambridge Street with Boston City Hall on your right. Go past the JFK Building. The Hurley Building is the second block on the right.
- Red Line to MGH/Charles Street Station. Walk up Cambridge Street. Pass Mass General Hospital (on your left). Continue past the Holiday Inn and the Charles River Plaza shopping center. Continue past the public library (West End Branch) and the church. The Hurley Building is in the next block on the corner of Cambridge and Staniford Streets.

Directions by Car:

From the North: Take Route 93 South to Exit 26 (Storrow Drive/Cambridge). Stay in the right lane. – or – Take Route 1 South to the exit for Storrow Drive/North Station. Stay in the right lane. Follow signs for North Station. Stay in the right lane for Nashua Street/North Station. The first traffic light provides access to Nashua Street. - If coming from Route 93 Exit ramp, bear right onto Nashua Street. - If coming from Route 1 Exit ramp, turn right onto Nashua Street. Follow Nashua Street to end (passing Spaulding Rehabilitation Hospital and a second traffic light) and make a left at the stop sign (Martha Road). At the next set of traffic lights, take a right onto Staniford Street. 19 Staniford Street is about halfway up on your left. You can enter on this side and walk though the building lobby to the courtyard side. The entrance to the walk in center is on the courtyard (New Chardon Street) side of the building.

From the South: From Route 3N or Interstate 95N, take Interstate 93N into Boston. Take Exit 26, Storrow Drive/North Station. Stay in left lane on exit ramp, following signs for Leverett Circle/North Station. Immediately upon emerging from the tunnel, the exit bears left and then becomes two lanes. Get into the right lane (follow signs for North Station) and continue to bear right through the first traffic light onto Nashua Street. Follow Nashua Street to end (passing Spaulding Rehabilitation Hospital and a second traffic light) and make a left at the stop sign (Martha Road). At the next set of traffic lights, take a right onto Staniford Street. 19 Staniford Street is about halfway up on your left. You can enter on this side and walk though the building lobby to the courtyard side. The entrance to the walk in center is on the courtyard (New Chardon Street) side of the building. From the West Take Mass Pike East to Exit 24B to Interstate 93 North. Take Exit 26, Storrow Drive/North Station. Stay in left lane on exit ramp, following signs for Leverett Circle/North Station. Immediately upon emerging from the tunnel, the exit bears left and then becomes two lanes. Get into the right lane (follow signs for North Station) and continue to bear right through the first traffic light onto Nashua Street. Follow Nashua Street to end (passing Spaulding Rehabilitation Hospital and a second traffic light) and make a left at the stop sign (Martha Road). At the next set of traffic lights, take a right onto Staniford Street. 19 Staniford Street is about halfway up on your left. You can enter on this side and walk though the building lobby to the courtyard side. The entrance to the walk in center is on the courtyard (New Chardon Street) side of the building. There are numerous parking garages in the Area, including the North Station Garage, located beneath the TD Banknorth Garden. The Walk-in Center is located approximately 1 block from the TD Banknorth Garden.