1 All persons licensed to perform deleading services are required to pay a $25.00 surcharge in accordance with section 22 of Chapter 482 of the Acts of 1993, which reads in relevant part: "Amounts raised by said surcharges shall be deposited into a retained revenue account hereby established for the department of public health, for the production and dissemination of educational materials pertaining to lead paint poisoning prevention and treatment issues, as required by section one hundred and ninety-two B and section one hundred and ninety-seven A of chapter one hundred and eleven of the General Laws, and for training of lead paint inspectors as well as homeowner training for those aspects of lead paint abatement or containment which the department, through regulations, authorizes homeowners to perform themselves. The department shall use amounts in said retained revenue account for the aforesaid purposes and for no other, without the need for further appropriation."

2 In accordance with Section 212 of chapter 184 of the Acts of 2002, these surcharges shall be collected for the purpose of conducting "occupational safety and health inspections, assessment and other operations as required by [the statutes governing lead abatement, asbestos abatement, and the regulation of employment agencies]."

3 A person applying for certification as an Asbestos Inspector and as an Asbestos Management Planner at the same time need pay only one fee (including surcharges).

4 See footnote 3.

NOTE: Fees for Employment Agencies, Right-to-Know, Asbestos, Lead, and Minimum Wage have been established by the Executive Office for Administration and Finance pursuant to 801 CMR 4.02, the Massachusetts regulation governing Fees, Licenses, Permits and Services to be Charged by State Agencies. Fees for Apprentice Training have been set in accordance with M.G.L. c. 23, §11W and sections 636-639 of Chapter 26 of the Acts of 2003.
