DEFINITIONS

Civil Commitment or “Civil”: Individuals committed to the Department via a civil court proceeding.

Criminally Sentenced or “Sentenced”: An individual who has been found guilty of a criminal offense(s) through legal proceedings and is incarcerated.

Commonwealth Jurisdiction: When the Commonwealth has legal authority over an individual regardless of where the individual is being held, whether incarcerated in a Massachusetts Department of Correction institution or in a correctional facility outside of the Massachusetts Department of Correction (e.g., a Massachusetts house of correction, another state’s correctional facility or the Federal Bureau of Prisons).

New Court Commitments: Individuals newly sentenced and committed to a correctional institution as prescribed by law. All new court commitments and those individuals who began serving new sentences (e.g., from and after sentences), are included in this category, whether or not there has been an actual, physical release from custody.

Pre-Trial or “Detainee”: An individual who is detained prior to trial, but not yet convicted of a crime, including male and female county detainees, male county detainees transferred to state facilities under Massachusetts General Law Chapter 276, section 52A, and federal detainees (both male and female).

Recidivism: The re-incarceration of an inmate due to a new commitment or a probation/parole violation, who was previously released via parole or expiration of their sentence and is again housed in a state or federal correctional facility within three (3) years of their last incarceration.

Superintendent: The chief administrative officer of a state correctional institution.
