- g. Except as provided in subsections 1 (h) and (i) below, any personal leave not taken by December 31 shall be forfeited by the employee. In addition, there is no provision for a cash payment “in lieu” of unused personal leave upon separation from state service.

However, under no circumstances may more than three (3) personal days be carried over in a given fiscal year by a bargaining unit 4 or 4A employee and any personal leave carried over must be used during the fiscal year into which it is carried over or it will be forfeited.
- i. A bargaining unit 8 or 10 employee who requests and is denied use of paid personal leave in the last quarter of the calendar year may request and receive, at the discretion of the appointing authority, the cash equivalent of such denied personal leave.

2. Professional Days:

- a. Full-time employees of bargaining unit 7 are credited annually, on January 1st, with two (2) paid professional days.

- b. Full-time employees of bargaining unit 7 hired or promoted into the bargaining unit after July 1st are credited with professional days in accordance with the following schedule:

- e. As there is no provision for the carry over of unused professional days from one fiscal year to the next, any professional days not taken by December 31st, shall be forfeited by the employee. In addition, there is no provision for a cash payment “in lieu” of unused professional days upon separation from state service.

3. Vacation:

- a. Vacation leave with pay shall be credited to bargaining unit employees employed by the Commonwealth on the last day of each full month worked based on work performed during that month as follows:

NOTE: The vacation carry-over language for bargaining unit 1, 2, 3, 4A, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 employees, confidential and management employees still allows the same amount of unused vacation leave to be carried over as was allowed under the old one (1) year carry-over language.

- e. Upon separation from state service, employees are paid for unused accrued vacation leave. However, as the specific provisions governing the payment of compensation for unused vacation leave differ in the various collective bargaining agreements which cover bargaining unit employees, and the Rules Governing Paid Leave and Other Benefits (“Red Book”) which covers management and confidential employees, Department employees are advised to contact the Department’s Division of Human Resources for more information.

4. Sick Leave:

- a. Full-time confidential and management employees of the Commonwealth accumulate sick leave credits at the rate of one and one-quarter days for each full calendar month of employment.
- b. Full-time bargaining unit employees of the Commonwealth accumulate sick leave credits at the following rate for each full calendar month of employment:

| Hours/Week | Sick Leave Accrued |
|-------------------|---------------------------|
| 37.50 hours/week | 9.375 hours |
| 40.00 hours/week | 10.000 hours |

- c. Employees on leave with pay or industrial accident leave accumulate sick leave credits and there is unlimited carry-over of unused sick leave credits from one fiscal year to the next.
- d. Regular part-time employees are granted sick leave credits in the same proportion that their part-time service bears to full-time service.
- e. Employees who retire shall be paid 20% of the value of their unused accrued sick leave at the time of their retirement. In addition, upon the death of a confidential or management employee who dies while in the employ of the Commonwealth, his/her/their estate shall be paid 20% of the value of the unused sick leave that the employee accrued as of the time of death. Finally, upon the death of a bargaining unit employee who dies while in the employ of the Commonwealth 20% of the value of unused sick leave shall be paid in the following order of precedence as authorized by the Personnel Administrator upon the request of the Appointing Authority:
 - i. To the surviving beneficiary or beneficiaries, if any, lawfully designated by the employee under the state employees' retirement system.
 - ii. If there is no such designated beneficiary, to the estate of the deceased employee.
- f. Sick leave is granted at the discretion of the appointing authority to an employee only under the following conditions:
 - i. When an employee cannot perform his/her/their duties because he/she/they is incapacitated by personal illness or injury.
 - ii. A confidential or management employee may use up to a maximum of thirty (30) days while a bargaining unit 1, 2, 3, 4, 4A, 6, 7, 8, 9 or 10 employee may use up to a maximum of sixty (60) days of sick leave per calendar year for the purpose of:

- a. Caring for the spouse, child, foster child, step-child, parent, step-parent, brother, sister, grandparent, grandchild, parent or child of spouse, person for whom the employee is legal guardian, or relative living in the household who is seriously ill.
- iii. A bargaining unit 4 employee may use up to a maximum of sixty (60) days of sick leave per calendar year for the purpose of:
 - a. Caring for the spouse, child, or parent of either the employee or his/her/their spouse or a relative living in the immediate household who is seriously ill; or
 - b. Parental leave due to the birth, adoption, or placement of a child in foster care, to be concluded within twelve (12) months of the date of birth or adoption.

NOTE: Where an eligible employee and his/her/their spouse are both employees of the Commonwealth, they may be jointly granted a total of not more than thirty (30) days of accrued sick leave for care of a seriously ill parent or for parental leave due to birth or adoption or placement of a child in foster care. In the case of a bargaining unit 8 or 10 employee, the requirement that an eligible employee and his/her/their spouse who are both employees of the Commonwealth split the sixty (60) day sick-in-family is eliminated.

- iv. An employee may use up to a maximum of ten (10) days of sick leave per calendar year in order to attend to necessary preparations and legal requirements related to the employee's adoption of a child. However, in no event may an employee, who is eligible to use thirty (30) days of sick leave in a calendar year for the adoption of a child, use more than a total of 30 days of sick leave in a calendar year for adoption related purposes.
- v. An employee may use up to ten (10) days of sick leave per year for necessary preparations and/or legal proceedings related to foster care of Department of Children and Families ("DCF", formerly the Department of Social Services "DSS") children such as foster care reviews, court hearings and MAPS training for pre-adoptive parents. The Commonwealth's Human Resources Division (HRD) may approve a waiver of the ten (10) day limit if needed for difficult placements. In addition, an employee may use the one day per month of paid leave available to employees for volunteer work under the Commonwealth's School Volunteer or Mentoring Programs for the foregoing foster care activities.
- vi. When through exposure to contagious disease, the presence of the employee at the employee's work location would jeopardize the health of others.

- vii. When a bargaining unit 1, 2, 3, 4A or 6 employee is absent due to the excessive use of alcohol or narcotics and becomes and continues to be an active participant in an approved counseling service program.
- viii. When an employee cannot reasonably schedule appointments with licensed medical or dental professionals outside of normal work hours for purposes of medical treatment or diagnosis of an existing medical or dental condition.
- g. A full-time employee shall not accrue sick leave credits for any month where said employee was on leave without pay or absent without pay for a total of more than one day.
- h. Upon return to work following a sick leave in excess of five consecutive working days, an employee may be required to undergo a medical examination to determine the employee's fitness for work. The employee (see note below), if desiring so, may be represented by a physician of the employee's choice.

NOTE: A bargaining unit 1, 3, 4A or 6 employee may be required to undergo a medical examination by an employer appointed physician to determine his/her/their fitness for work. The employee, if found unfit for duty and if he/she/they so desires, may then receive an examination by a physician of his/her/their choice. The employer will bear the costs of the employee's initial examinations.

- i. Where the appointing authority has reason to believe that sick leave is being abused, the appointing authority may require the submission of medical evidence. Failure to produce such evidence within seven (7) days (ten (10) days in the case of a bargaining unit 8 or 10 employee) of its request may result, at the discretion of the appointing authority, in denial of sick leave for the period of absence.
- j. Paragraph b of this subsection does not apply to teachers and supervisors in any school of any department whose weeks of service and basis of payment of salary are governed by Section 31, Chapter 29 of the General Laws. Said employees accumulate sick leave credits at the rate of ten (10) workdays for each school year of service. Regular part-time employees governed by paragraph (h) shall be granted sick leave credits in the same proportion that part-time service bears to full-time service.
- k. A bargaining unit 4 employee with forty-eight (48) hours of sick leave used during a calendar year shall provide satisfactory medical evidence (as contained in the Department's Illness Certification Form) for each absence thereafter for the remainder of the calendar year. For the purpose of this section, an absence is defined as using sick leave for any portion of an employee's scheduled shift. An employee shall not be required to provide medical evidence until the employee has used forty-eight (48) hours of sick leave unless the appointing authority has probable cause to believe that sick leave is being abused.

The following situations shall not be counted towards the first forty-eight (48) hours of sick leave: 1) the hospitalization of the employee, the hospitalization of the employee's spouse, the hospitalization of the employee's child or spouse's child, or the hospitalization of the parent of the employee or parent of the employee's spouse for a catastrophic illness; 2) sick leave used in conjunction with an approved industrial accident leave. Hospitalization is defined as admittance to a hospital for at least two consecutive nights; 3) sick leave that has been substantiated as a result of the issuance of an Attachment C.

The Department's Illness Certification Form must be completely and accurately filled out to be on an authorized leave. Failure to provide such medical evidence within seven (7) days of its request or upon the employee's return to work may result, at the discretion of the Appointing Authority, in denial of the sick leave for the day(s) involved, and/or disciplinary action.

NOTE: All employees should refer to their Collective Bargaining Agreements, or Red Book for managers and confidential employees for further details.

5. Extended Illness Leave Bank:

- a. Chapter 97 of the Acts of 1995 created an Extended Illness Leave Bank (EILB) which consists of earned sick, vacation and personal days voluntarily donated by eligible employees for use by employees experiencing extended illness and facing unpaid leaves of absence due to their illness.
- b. An employee must have completed one (1) year of creditable service and have an acceptable attendance record to be eligible for membership in the EILB.
- c. Membership in the EILB is voluntary and an eligible employee may elect to become a member by donating at least one day of accrued sick, vacation or personal leave during the June or December open enrollment. There is no limit on the total number of days an employee may donate at one time.
- d. Compensatory time off and other types of paid leave may not be donated. Unused vacation days that an employee may not ordinarily carry over into a new fiscal year may be donated during the June open enrollment.
- e. After initial enrollment an employee must donate at least one day of sick, vacation or personal leave once each year during the month of January in order to continue membership in the EILB. In addition, members will be notified of the need for additional donations of time when the statewide balance in the bank falls below 120 days. A member who does not have accrued leave to donate at that point may assign his/her/their next accrued sick, vacation or personal day. A member who fails to respond with donations of time for two consecutive requests to donate will have his/her/their membership in the EILB terminated and will have to wait until the next open enrollment period to become a member again.

- f. A member's application for withdrawal from the EILB is subject to the criteria for withdrawal as specified in the Extended Illness Leave Bank Interim Procedures.
- g. Additional information relative to the EILB, including application forms may be obtained from the Department Division of Human Resources.

6. Holidays:

- a. The following days shall be holidays for employees:

New Year's Day
Independence Day
Martin Luther King Day
Labor Day
President's Day
Columbus Day
Veteran's Day
Patriot's Day
Thanksgiving Day
Memorial Day
Christmas Day
Juneteenth

- b. All holidays shall be observed on the Commonwealth's legal holiday unless an alternative day is designated by the employer.
- c. When a holiday occurs on the regular scheduled work day of an employee, said employee, if not required to work that day, shall be entitled to receive a regular day's pay for such holiday.
- d. When a holiday occurs on a day that is not an employee's regular workday, said employee, at the option of the employer shall receive pay, for one day at the employee's regular rate or one compensatory day off with pay to be taken at a time approved by the appointing authority.
- e. An employee required to work on a holiday shall receive a compensatory day off with pay, to be taken at a time approved by the appointing authority or if a compensatory day cannot be granted by the agency/department because of a shortage of personnel or other reasons then said employee shall be entitled to pay for one day at the regular rate of pay in addition to pay for the holiday worked.

- f. A part-time bargaining unit 1, 2, 3, 4A, 6, 7, 8, 9, or 10 employee shall earn pay for a holiday or compensatory time in the same proportion that his/her/their part-time service bears to full-time service.

NOTE: A part-time employee who is scheduled but not required to work on a holiday, who receives less holiday credit than the number of hours he/she/they is regularly scheduled to work, may use other available leave time, or upon the request of the employee and approval by the appointing authority, subject to operational needs, may make up the difference in hours that same workweek. The scheduling of these hours shall be at a time requested by the employee and approved by the appointing authority, subject to operational needs.

- g. A regular, part-time, management, or confidential employee who works five (5) days a week shall receive a day off with pay for each holiday. A regular part-time management or confidential employee who works fewer than five (5) days a week shall receive a day off with pay when a holiday falls on a day he/she/they is scheduled to work. The employee shall not receive a day off with pay when the holiday falls on a day on which the employee is not scheduled to work.
- h. A bargaining unit 1, 2, 3, 4A, 6, 8, 9, 10 employee, management or confidential employee who is on leave without pay or absent without pay for that part of his/her/their scheduled workday immediately preceding or immediately following a holiday that occurs on a regularly scheduled workday for which the employee is not required to work shall not receive holiday pay for that holiday. A bargaining unit 4 or 7 employee on leave without pay or absent without pay for any part of his/her/their scheduled workday immediately preceding or immediately following a holiday that occurs on a regularly scheduled workday for which the employee is not required to work shall not receive holiday pay or a compensatory day off for that holiday.
- i. An employee who is granted sick leave for a holiday on which said employee is scheduled to work shall not receive holiday pay or a compensatory day off for that holiday.

7. Bereavement Leave:

Upon evidence satisfactory to the appointing authority, an employee may use bereavement leave. Employees should refer to their respective Collective Bargaining Agreements, or Red Book for managers and confidential employees, as to when this leave may be taken, for whom it may be taken and the duration of said leave.

8. Civic Duty Leave:

- a. Employees summoned for jury duty shall be granted a leave of absence with pay for time lost from their regular work schedule while on said jury duty upon presentation of the appropriate summons to the department head by the employee. An employee having been summoned for jury duty shall not be required to work beyond 11:00 p.m. on the day preceding the first day of juror service. In addition, an employee shall not be required to work a night shift during the term of juror service. In no event shall an employee be entitled to leave with pay for more shifts than days of jury service rendered. An employee who receives jury fees for jury service upon presentation of the appropriate court certificate of service shall either:
- i. retain such jury fees in lieu of pay for the period of jury service if the jury fees exceed the employee's regular rate of pay for the period involved, or
 - ii. remit to the appointing authority the jury fees if less than the employee's regular rate of pay for the period involved.

Jury fees shall be the per diem rate paid for jury duty by the court not including the expenses reimbursed for travel, meals, rooms or incidentals.

- b. An employee summoned as a witness in court on behalf of the Commonwealth or any town, city or county of the Commonwealth or on behalf of the federal government shall be granted court leave with pay upon filing of the appropriate notice of service with the employee's department head except that this section shall not apply to an employee who is in the employ of any town, city or county of the Commonwealth or in the employ of the federal government or any private employer and who is summoned on a matter arising from that employment.
- c. All fees for court service except jury fees paid for service rendered during office hours must be paid to the Commonwealth. Any fees paid to an employee for court service performed during a vacation period may be retained by the employee. The employee shall retain expenses paid for travel, meals, rooms, etc.
- d. An employee on court leave who has been excused by the proper court authority shall report to said employee's official duty station if such interruption in court service will permit four or more consecutive hours of employment. Court leave shall not effect any employment rights of the individual. No court leave shall be granted when the employee is the defendant or is engaged in personal litigation.

9. Military Leave:

- a. Employees shall be entitled during the time of their service in the armed forces of the Commonwealth, under Section 38, 40, 41, 42 or 60 of Chapter 33 of the Massachusetts General Laws, to receive pay therefore, without loss of their ordinary remuneration as employees.
- b. Employees shall be entitled, during their annual tour of duty of not exceeding seventeen (17) days as a member of a reserve component of the armed forces of the United States, to receive pay therefore, without loss of their ordinary remuneration as an employee under Section 59 of Chapter 33 of the Massachusetts General Laws as amended.
- c. In accordance with Chapter 33, Section 59A of the Massachusetts General Laws, as amended, employees of the Commonwealth shall be granted permission to attend weekly and week-end drills when same requires their absence from their normally scheduled work tour. When the employee is notified of his/her/their training dates and such dates conflict with his/her/their scheduled work tour, such employee shall immediately notify his/her/their supervisor. In the event that no adjustments can be made, the employee shall be released from duty at his/her/their request without compensation. Such release from work shall not affect the employee's leave of absence or vacation with pay given to other like employees or officials.
- d. Employees must notify their institution or division when on any type of military leave. Military Orders shall be submitted for each leave period with as much notification as possible by employee. If orders are unavailable at the beginning of such leave a verbal notification is required until orders may be provided. 13. Fair Labor Standards Act

Effective March 23, 2010 employers are required to provide a nursing mother reasonable break time to express breast milk after the birth of her child. The law is enforced by the United States Department of Labor (DOL).

An employer shall provide to employees (who are not exempt from the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA)):

- Reasonable break time for an employee to express milk for her nursing child for one (1) year after the child’s birth each time such employee has need to express milk; and
- A place, other than a bathroom, that is shielded from view and free from intrusion from co-workers and the public, which may be used by an employee to express breast milk.

Time, Location and Compensation of the Breaks

1. Employers are required to provide a reasonable amount of break time to express milk, as frequently as needed by the nursing mother. The frequency and duration of the breaks may vary.
2. The location must be functional as a space for expressing milk, if the space is not dedicated to the nursing mother’s use, it must be available when needed in order to meet the statutory requirement. The space, whether permanent or temporary, must be shielded from view and free from intrusion from co-workers and the public.

3. Employers are not required to compensate nursing mother for breaks taken for the purpose of expressing milk. Where an employer already provides compensated breaks, an employee who uses that break time to express milk must be compensated in the same way that other employees are compensated for break time. In addition, the FLSA general requirement that the employee must be completely relieved from duty or else the time must be compensated as work time applies.
 4. Agencies may not consider nursing mother's break time to be FMLA leave or counted against an employee's FMLA leave entitlement as nursing is not considered a "serious health condition" under the FMLA per the DOL.
14. Non-FMLA Family Leave:
- a. A full or regular part-time employee who has completed his/her/their probationary period, or if there is no such probationary period, has been employed for at least three consecutive months who has given at least two (2) weeks prior notice of his/her/their anticipated date of departure and who has given notice of his/her/their intention to return may be granted non-FMLA family leave for a period not exceeding ten (10) weeks. Such leave will be without pay or benefits for such period. The purpose for which an employee may submit his/her/their application for such unpaid leave shall be limited to the need to care for, or to make arrangements for care of grandparent, grandchild, sister or brother living in the same household, or a child (stepchild in the case of a bargaining unit 4 employee) whether or not the child is the natural, adoptive, foster, stepchild or child under legal guardianship of the employee.
 - b. Ten (10) days of non-FMLA Family leave may be taken in not less than one-day increments. However, such leave requires the prior approval of the appointing authority or his/her/their designee.
 - c. If the employee has accrued sick leave, personal leave, or vacation credits at the commencement of his/her/their non-FMLA family leave, the employee may use such leave credits for which he/she/they may be eligible under the sick leave, personal leave, or vacation leave provisions of the applicable collective bargaining agreement (bargaining unit employees) or "Red Book" (management and confidential employees).
 - d. Between periods of family leave, where an employee returns to the payroll for a period of less than two weeks, when a holiday falls during that time, no holiday pay or compensatory time shall be granted for such holiday.

- i. To care for the employee's child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care.
 - ii. To care for the employee's spouse, son or daughter, or parent, who has a serious health condition.
 - iii. For a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform his/her/their job.
- b. If the employee has accrued sick leave, personal leave or vacation credits at the commencement of his/her/their leave, he/she/they may use such leave credits for which he/she/they may be eligible under the sick leave, personal leave or vacation provisions of the applicable collective bargaining agreement (bargaining unit employees) or "Red Book" (management and confidential employees).
- c. At least thirty (30) days in advance, the employee shall submit an application for leave indicating his/her/their request to take such leave and the dates and expected duration of such leave (Attachment A). If thirty (30) days notice is not possible, the employee shall give notice as soon as practicable. The employee shall provide, upon request by the appointing authority, certification from a health care provider of the employee's own illness or certification from a health care provider of an illness of the employee's family member (Attachment B).

Note: Attachment B1 is for the Employee's Serious Health Condition and Attachment B2 is for the Family Member's Serious Health Condition.

- d. The use of Federal Family and Medical Leave Act cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an employee's, leave under the Act. In addition, the employer must maintain the employee's group health insurance coverage for the duration of the leave.

An eligible employee shall substitute any of his/her/their accrued paid vacation leave, personal leave, sick leave or compensatory time for any of the leave provided under this subsection prior to taking leave under this subsection as leave without pay.

However, nothing herein shall be construed as to require the Department to provide paid leave except in accordance with the applicable collective bargaining agreement, "Red Book", and/or the Rules and Regulations Governing All Employees of the Massachusetts Department of Correction ("Blue Book"), or to require the Department to provide paid leave in any situation in which the Department would not normally provide any such paid leave.

RETIREMENT

1. All full-time and all one-half time or better employees must be members of the Massachusetts Retirement System. Every week nine percent (9%) of an employee's gross salary is deducted for retirement (eight percent (8%) for those hired prior to July 1, 1996, seven percent (7%) for those hired prior to January 1, 1984 and five percent (5%) for those hired prior to January 1, 1975).

NOTE: Employees hired after January 1, 1979 will pay their regular retirement contribution plus an additional two percent (2%) contribution on salaries in excess of $30,000. The additional contribution is required as of January 1, 1988.

2. Accumulated deductions can be withdrawn from the retirement system upon resignation from state service.
3. An employee is considered eligible for retirement if he/she/they has twenty (20) years of service, or if he/she/they is age fifty-five (55) with at least ten (10) years of service.

4. A retiring employee's retirement is generally processed under what is termed "superannuation". It may also be processed as a disability or as an eligible veteran. Under superannuation the employee's "benefit rate" (determined by age and retirement group) is multiplied by his/her/their high three year average pay multiplied by his/her/their creditable service to arrive at his/her/their annual retirement allowance.
5. A retiring employee may elect to retire under one (1) of the following three (3) retirement options:
 - a. Option A - Provides the largest retirement allowance in monthly payments. However, all allowance payments will stop upon the employee's death and no benefits will be provided to the employee's survivors.
 - b. Option B - Provides for a retirement allowance about three-percent (3%) to ten-percent (10%) less than Option A. However, this option provides a lump sum payment of any remaining balance of the employee's accumulated total deductions at the employee's death to his/her/their surviving beneficiary of record, or if there is no beneficiary living, the person or persons appearing in the judgment of the State Board of Retirement (SBR) to be so entitled.
 - c. Option C - Known as The Joint and Last Survivor Allowance, it provides a retirement allowance approximately twenty-percent (20%) less than an employee would receive under Option A. However, upon the death of the employee, this option provides an allowance equal to two-thirds of the retirement allowance paid the employee at the time of his/her/their death to his/her/their designated benefit beneficiary.
6. An employee injured in the performance of his/her/their duty and incapacitated may apply for and receive an accidental disability allowance, which consists of an annuity and a pension, calculated as follows:
 - a. The annuity is based on the employee's total accumulated deductions with related interest, and the employee's age on the date of retirement.
 - b. The pension is equal to 72% of the annual rate of the employee's regular compensation which he/she/they was earning on the date of injury or 72% of the average annual rate of regular compensation for the twelve (12) month period for which he/she/they last received regular compensation, whichever is greater.

There is an additional pension benefit to which the employee is entitled if he/she/they has eligible children. This is a yearly allowance of $450.00 for each surviving child under eighteen (18) or over said age and physically or mentally incapacitated from earning on the date of the employee's retirement, or over said age and under twenty-one (21) if he/she/they is a full-time student at an accredited educational institution. Beginning July 1, 1989, this amount increases by an amount equal to the percentage increase of the cost of living each year as determined by the Legislature for retirement allowances, pensions and annuities.

NOTE: The annual retirement allowance (the sum of pension and annuity, exclusive of payments made to eligible children) of an accidental disability retiree who became a member-in-service after January 1, 1988 cannot exceed 75% of the annual rate of regular compensation used to calculate the allowance.

7. An employee who is a veteran and who was in public service on or before June 30, 1939 may be eligible for a special veteran's pension. M.G.L., Chapter 32, Sections 56 through 60 should be consulted for more specific information.
8. Chapter 637 of the Acts of 1982 amended M.G.L., Chapter 32 to provide a 20 year retirement option for certain employees of the Department. Specifically, Chapter 637 provides that any employee of the Department classified in Retirement Group Four (which includes employees at any correctional institution or prison camp under the control of the Department who hold the position of Correction Officer, Female Correction Officer, Industrial Instructor, Recreation Officer, Assistant Industrial Shop Manager, Industrial Shop Manager, Assistant to the Supervisor of Industries, Supervisor of Industries, Senior Correction Officer, Senior Female Correction Officer, Supervising Correction Officer, Supervising Female Correction Officer, Prison Camp Officer, Senior Prison Camp Officer, Supervising Prison Camp Officer, Assistant Deputy Superintendent, and employees who hold the position of State Hospital Steward in the Department) whose major responsibilities include the care and custody of prisoners, and any Transportation Officer working within the Department, who has performed service in the Department of not less than twenty (20) years shall, at his/her/their own request, be retired at 50% of his/her/their average annual rate of regular compensation during the twelve (12) month period immediately preceding the date of retirement, plus one percent for each year of service in excess of twenty (20) years of service.
9. The foregoing information is presented to give an overview of the possibilities inherent in the Massachusetts Retirement Plan. However, it is strongly recommended that prospective retirees avail themselves of the personal counseling offered by the State Board of Retirement (SBR). The SBR may be contacted at (617) 367-7770 for more information or to arrange a private interview.

NOTE: A part-time, seasonal, temporary or full-time employee ineligible to join the Massachusetts Retirement System is required to join the Commonwealth's OBRA Mandatory Alternative Retirement Program administered by Aetna Life Insurance and Annuity Company, Aetna Financial Services under the State's Deferred Compensation Plan. The Department Division of Human Resources is required to have said employee complete the Plan's Participation Agreement.

BEREAVEMENT COMPENSATION

1. Retirement:

- a. The employee's accumulated retirement deductions would be paid, in one sum, to his/her/their beneficiary(s) if the employee's death is covered by the provisions of M.G.L. c. 32, §9. In addition, an Accidental Death Benefit would be paid. This could amount to a yearly pension equal to 72% of the annual rate of compensation the employee was receiving on the date of injury, or 72% of the salary he/she/they received during the last year of regular employment, whichever is greater. Such an amount would be paid to the employee's spouse for as long as said spouse survives. To this would be added a yearly amount of $312.00 for each surviving child under age eighteen (18) or over said age and physically or mentally incapacitated from earning on the date of his/her/their death, or over said age and under twenty-one (21) if he/she/they is a full-time student at an accredited school, provided that the total benefit does not exceed the employee's rate of regular compensation, on the date of injury, or the salary he/she/they received for the last year worked. Widows of correction officers may receive 100% in certain deaths.
- b. An employee may nominate under Option D of the state retirement system an eligible beneficiary, and if the employee dies before being retired, such beneficiary will receive two-thirds of the Option C allowance to which the employee would have been entitled, had he/she/they retired as of the date of his/her/their death.
- c. The SBR should be consulted for additional information.

2. Life Insurance:

On the death of an employee his/her/their designated beneficiary(s) would be entitled to whatever life insurance, if any, the employee elected to carry under the Commonwealth's Group Insurance Plan.

3. Vacation Pay:

On the death of an employee his/her/their designated beneficiary(s), or if there be no such designated beneficiary(s), the estate of the deceased employee would be entitled to payment for unused vacation leave provided that no monetary or other allowance has already been made. However, as the specific provisions of the various collective bargaining agreements and the "Red Book" governing the payment of compensation for unused accrued vacation leave upon the death of an employee do vary, Department employees are advised to contact the Department Division of Human Resources for more information.

4. Sick Leave:

- a. Upon the death of a confidential or management employee who dies while in the employ of the Commonwealth, his/her/their estate shall be paid 20% of the value of the unused sick leave accrued as of the date of death.
- b. Upon the death of a bargaining unit employee who dies while in the employ of the Commonwealth, 20% of the value of unused sick leave accrued shall be paid in the following order of precedence as authorized by the Personnel Administrator upon request of the Appointing Authority:
 - i. First, to the surviving beneficiary or beneficiaries, if any, lawfully designated by the employee under the state employees' retirement system.
 - ii. Second, if there is no such designated beneficiary, to the estate of the deceased.
