224.13

CENTRALIZED UNIFORM DISTRIBUTION

A. General Information

1. The Department has centralized the procurement and general issuance of uniforms. The Central Clothing Unit is located at the Bridgewater Correctional Complex.
2. Institution inventories of new staff uniforms are not to be maintained. All used staff uniforms which are suitable for reissue should be retained at the institutional level for emergency purposes.
3. Central Clothing shall maintain an individual clothing record for all staff that receive issued clothing. An individual's clothing record details all clothing that was issued to them by Central Clothing and when that issuance occurred. Central Clothing may adjust quantities requested based on an individual's recorded issuances and the historical wear data of the item requested.
4. Replacement uniforms are issued on an in kind basis only, meaning that for each article issued, a like item should be returned. Used uniform articles being exchanged should exhibit only signs of normal wear. Issuances without an exchange should be scrutinized at the institutional level.

B. Ordering Procedures

1. With the exception of the Bridgewater Complex, institutions/divisions shall be allowed one (1) order of uniforms per month. Exceptions to this schedule shall only be made for justified emergency situations.
2. All uniform requests shall be faxed to the Central Clothing unit. This request should be cumulative, in memo form, and include all pertinent information (e.g., description, size). Said request shall be approved by the appropriate individual as designated by the respective Superintendent.

3. Uniform clothing orders must be picked up at Central Clothing by the requesting institution no later than 2:00 PM. A state vehicle must be utilized to pick the order up. All shipments must be verified and signed for before departing the warehouse.

C. Correction Officer Uniforms

1. Institutions shall not maintain officer clothing with the exception of used uniforms as previously mentioned.
2. The initial Correction Officer uniform issue shall be distributed from the Training Academy and consist of the following:

CLASS "A" UNIFORM:

One (1) Uniform pants
One (1) Uniform long sleeve shirts
One (1) Uniform clip-on ties
Two (2) State seal collar pins
One (1) Uniform hat (saucer type)
One (1) Baseball hat
One (1) Uniform belt

One (1) Radio holder
One (1) Winter knit hat, black w/embroidered badge

3. Correction Officers can request replacement uniform clothing on an

"as needed" basis with the exception of footwear, which shall be predetermined by the Commissioner of Correction. Each institution shall compile the aforementioned requests on a monthly basis and ensure the legitimacy of same. Replacement clothing is intended to replace those uniform articles that are either worn or damaged beyond repair.

4. IPS uniforms are available at the Central Warehouse for distribution; however, these articles shall only be issued to designated personnel and are subject to the same replacement provisions.
5. The following specialty items or those associated with the following functions shall not be available from the clothing warehouse and must be individually procured at the institutional level:
 - Rubber boots
 - Leather gloves
 - Honor Guard uniforms
 - Raincoats
 - Jumpsuits

D. Correctional Program Officer Uniforms

1. Correctional Program Officer uniform clothing shall be issued in a similar manner to that of Correction Officer clothing, with the initial issue consisting of the following:
 - Five (5) Pants
 - Five (5) Long sleeve polo shirts
 - Five (5) Short sleeve polo shirts
 - One (1) Long sleeve white dress shirts
 - One (1) Short sleeve white dress shirts (upon request)
 - One (1) Baseball cap
 - One (1) Wind shirt
 - One (1) Winter jacket
 - One (1) Belt
 - One (1) Boots
 - One (1) Name tag
2. CPO's can request replacement clothing on an "as needed" basis. Attachment #2 of this policy shall be utilized for replacement clothing requests for CPO's. It shall be the responsibility of the institution/division to compile the aforementioned requests on a monthly basis and insure the legitimacy of same. Replacement clothing is intended to replace those uniform articles that are either worn or damaged beyond repair.

E. Maintenance Uniforms

1. Maintenance uniform clothing shall be issued in a similar format to that of Correction Officer clothing, with the initial issue consisting of the following:

Five (5) Pants

Five (5) Long sleeve shirts

Five (5) Short sleeve shirts or T-shirts w/ Department seal

One (1) Baseball cap

One (1) Summer jacket

One (1) Winter jacket

2. Replacement recreation uniform clothing shall follow the "as needed" guidelines associated with other staff clothing and must be ordered at the discretion of the institutional clothing officers.

G. Uniform Specifications

All uniform specifications shall be maintained at the Central Clothing Warehouse by the Central Clothing Coordinator. These specifications shall be updated as necessary and are available upon request.

224.14 ALTERNATE UNIFORMS

All departmental uniforms must conform to the contents of this policy unless written approval is granted from the Commissioner. Said approval is required for any variation of current regulation clothing or alternate uniform.

224.15 PERSONAL APPEARANCE

- A. Officers shall maintain a neat, well-groomed appearance.
- B. Officers shall not wear jewelry, pins, necklaces, or bracelets of any kind with the uniform. Exceptions, if conservative, include the following: ring(s); a wristwatch; a union pin, a Medic Alert bracelet; and necklace(s) or religious medallions worn discreetly beneath the shirt. No facial jewelry of any type shall be worn.
- C. Cosmetics, if worn, shall be conservative, subdued and blended to match the natural skin color. No false eyelashes or unnaturally colored contact lenses shall be worn.
- D. Hair shall be clean, neat, and well groomed. Hair shall not interfere with the wearing of any standard headgear or be dyed or tinted an exaggerated or unnatural color. Wigs or hairpieces may be worn if they conform to the above standards. Nothing in this policy shall permit the Department to discriminate based upon race or natural or protected hairstyles.

Under this policy, the definitions of “neat” and “well-groomed” shall mean personal appearance that is consistent with generally accepted standards of the uniformed Law Enforcement Community.

- E. It shall be the responsibility of each person who is issued regulation or special unit uniforms to:
 - 1. Keep it neat and tidy;
 - 2. Wear it in the prescribed/authorized manner;
 - 3. Refrain from using regulation clothing or insignia outside of the official capacity for which it was issued.

Uniformed personnel shall ensure that the wearing of the Department uniform shall be in the official capacity and intent for which it was issued and at no time shall a uniform be worn in such a manner as to bring discredit to the institution or Department.
