755.01            GENERAL POLICY

The Department of Correction shall make every effort to comply with all applicable sanitation as required in 105 CMR 451, Minimum Health and Sanitation and Inspection Procedures for Correctional Facilities, and personal hygiene concerns related to inmate clothing, bedding, linen, and laundry.

755.02            INSTITUTIONAL CONTROLS

Each institutional Superintendent shall ensure that, at a minimum, the following are provided:

- A.     The appointment of an employee to be responsible for the supervision of the issuance, and laundering, as required, of clothing, bedding, and linen.
- B.     Appropriate storage area for the clothing, bedding, and linen, and such stores exceed that required for institution's maximum population.
- C.     A system of accountability for inmate clothing, bedding, and linen to include an inventory process and a recording of issuance and return.
- D.     The issuance and/or return of all clothing, bedding, and linen shall be documented in the Inmate Property module of IMS and in accordance with 103 CMR 403, Inmate Property.

755.03            CLOTHING

Each superintendent shall develop written procedures to ensure that, at a minimum, the following are provided:

- A.     The issuance of suitable clothing to all inmates to preserve health and comfort at all times of the year. Clothing is properly fitted, climatically suitable, durable, and presentable.
- B.     Inmates assigned to special work areas are clothed with special/protective clothing in accordance with work assignment and that such seasonal clothing be issued as weather conditions require.
- C.     Inmates assigned to a specialty housing unit (e.g., behavior assessment units, secure adjustment units, etc.) shall be issued clothing that is color-coded differently from that of the general population. Institutions with specialty units shall develop written procedures designating the color to be used and the process by which the clothing will be issued.
- D.     All clothing, standard, special or civilian, be properly recorded and inventoried as per 103 DOC 755.02 (C) and (D).

755.04

STATE CLOTHING ISSUANCE

The initial issue for inmate clothing is accomplished at the receiving institutions at the onset of incarceration with the exception of items marked seasonal or site specific, which shall be retained by the inmate throughout any departmental transfer. Items listed as seasonal or site specific may be retained by the transferring institution upon the inmate's transfer and reintroduced to inventory. Supplementary issues to the initial issuance should only be accomplished on an in-kind basis, meaning a one (1) for one (1) exchange. Exchanges should only be made if warranted by normal wear, or change in security classification (i.e., placement in a specialty unit). Special care must be taken to ensure that deliberate destruction of clothing is limited, and reimbursement is made for deliberate misuse.

A. The initial issue for male inmates housed in maximum and medium security level institutions is comprised of:

1. Three (3) Elastic waist pants (site specific)
2. Two (2) Shorts
3. Three (3) V-neck pocketed pullover (site specific)
4. Five (5) Crewneck T-Shirts
5. Five (5) Under shorts
6. Five (5) Pairs of socks
7. One (1) Pair of sneakers (deck shoes)
8. One (1) Winter jacket (seasonal)

Minimum and pre-release security level initial issues will be the same except that the elastic waist pants will be replaced with denim dungarees, and the V-neck shirts will be replaced with chambray shirts.

B. The initial issue for female inmates is comprised of:

1. Three (3) Elastic waist jeans
2. Two (2) Shorts
3. Five (5) T-Shirts
4. One (1) Sweatshirt
5. Five (5) Bras
6. Five (5) Briefs
7. Five (5) Pairs of socks
8. One (1) Housecoat
9. One (1) Pair of shower shoes
10. One (1) Pair of sneakers
11. One (1) Winter jacket (seasonal)

Superintendents of institutions housing female offenders shall develop written procedures for issuing clothing to pregnant inmates.

- C. The following specialty clothing will be available at Central Clothing. Inmate specialty clothing is intended for those inmates who are employed in institutional jobs that require said clothing articles and are not intended for the general population. Upon termination of employment or seasonal requirements, said articles should be confiscated, cleaned, and recycled.

1. Thermal underwear (issued to outside work crews only)
2. Stocking cap (issued to outside work crews only)
3. Kitchen V-neck white shirts
4. Kitchen elastic waist white pants
5. Kitchen aprons

*NOTE: Under no circumstances shall returned undergarments be re-issued. Should outer clothing be re-issued, it is to be properly laundered in hot water with a satisfactory detergent prior to re-issue.

- D. Upon release of an inmate, all state issued clothing other than socks, undergarments, and the basic clothing necessities should be returned and redistributed to the institutional clothing inventory or transferred back to the committing institution.

*NOTE: Under no circumstances shall returned undergarments be re-issued. Should outer clothing be re-issued, it is to be properly laundered in hot water with a satisfactory detergent prior to re-issue.

- E. All clothing issued shall be documented in the Property module of the inmate management system (IMS).
