

TAKE CARE OF YOUR TREES DURING A DROUGHT

Wilting, yellowing, and early leaf drop are signs of drought stress

New/young trees are particularly at risk during drought

Fill watering bags, or slowly water at the base once a week (15 gal / 1.5 in. tree diameter)

Keep soil in tree wells loose by raking

