

South Middlesex Correctional Center

135 Western Avenue, Framingham

Number of Buildings:	6
Security Levels	Minimum, Pre-release
Total Facility Square footage:	56,666 GSF
Year Opened:	2002

The South Middlesex Correctional Center's main building is 3-stories with a fully occupied basement. It is steel frame and brick masonry structure constructed in the 1930's. The Center was founded in 1976 and moved to its present site adjacent to MCI Framingham in 1981. Originally, the facility housed male and female inmates but it became all female in 2002. It currently houses sentenced county and DOC female inmates.

Major Buildings

Building Name	GSF	# of Floors	Building Usage	Construction Type
Reunification House	1,880	2	2000 - Corrections	Wood, Unknown Subtype
South Middlesex Correctional Center	52,600	3	2003 - Corrections/Detention Building	Steel Frame-Conc Shr Walls
Automotive Garage 6	900	1	2710 - Auto Technology	Unreinforced Masonry
Greenhouse 4	1,110	1	3300 - Greenhouse	Other Than Std Constr Type
Shed 3	96	1	7300 - Shed	Wood, Light Frame
Shed	80	1	7300 - Shed	Wood, Light Frame

Aerial View of the South Middlesex Correctional Center in Framingham