

Earned Income Tax Credit

A tax break for low- and moderate-income workers

You could get up to $10,402 cash when you file your 2023 federal and Massachusetts tax returns.

You may qualify if:

- You worked and earned income in 2023
- You and everyone you claim on your tax return have a valid social security number, and

For Married Filing Jointly:

If your family has:	And you earned less than:	Massachusetts maximum credit:	MA + Federal maximum credit:
0 qualifying children	$24,210	$240	$840
1 qualifying child	$53,120	$1,598	$5,593
2 qualifying children	$59,478	$2,642	$9,246
3 or more qualifying children	$63,398	$2,972	$10,402

These numbers apply to Married Filing Jointly, with investment income of $11,000 or less. Please see mass.gov/dor/eitc for qualifications for Single, Head of Household, Qualifying Widowed and Married Filing Separately.

How do I claim my credit?

To claim the Earned Income Tax Credit, you must file and claim the credit on your federal income tax return. You may then claim 40% of the federal credit amount as a credit on your Massachusetts return.
