NOTICE OF PUBLIC LISTENING SESSION

The Board of State Examiners of Electricians is considering changes to the Rules and Regulations Governing Electricians and Systems Installers 237 CMR 12.00 to 23.00. By way of its CMR (Code of Massachusetts Regulations) Subcommittee, the Board is soliciting comments on the following topics:

Inspector education and certification requirements

In advance of considering any draft changes and commencing the formal regulatory amendment process, the Board is inviting interested members of the public to attend an open forum to provide input with regards to these topics. Please note that this session is specifically designated for the above topics only, comments about other areas can always be submitted to the Board in writing at any time, but only the above topics will be entertained at this meeting.

An unofficial copy of the existing regulations are available online at this link:
