Eliot is committed to serving the most vulnerable of populations - those at risk, with limited or no resources for help. Our multidisciplinary staff of over 2000 full and part-time professionals serve over 30,000 adults, children and families each year. We have extensive experience working with insurance and managed care companies, and a long history of working together with public and private partners to serve the most vulnerable and at-risk populations, 24 hours a day.
