License exam results appeal of Jeffrey Smith- Appellant explained that he didn't understand all of the test questions. The chairman answered that that isn't a reason to question the validity of test. The appellant then stated that he needed the license in order to obtain a job. The chairman answered that that isn't something that can be considered as part of the appeal. The appellant and the chairman then discussed experience and training.

The matter was taken under advisement. During deliberations it was decided to deny the appeal.
