Welcome to DCR’s
F. Gilbert Hills State Forest

Offering over 1,000 acres of park land, F. Gilbert Hills boasts 33 miles of trails primarily used for hiking, mountain biking and horseback riding as well as access to the 30-mile Warner Trail that leads to Sharon, Massachusetts to Diamond Hill State Park in Rhode Island. Additionally there are eight miles of motor biking trails.

F. Gilbert Hills is part of the Massachusetts state park system and is managed by the Massachusetts Department of Conservation and Recreation (DCR), an agency of the Executive Office of Energy and Environmental Affairs.

DCR operates 450,000 acres of parks, forests, beaches, bike trails, waterfronts, and dams. Its mission is to protect, promote, and enhance the state’s natural, cultural, and recreational resources. To learn about DCR and to discover more parks and recreational opportunities within the Massachusetts state parks, visit www.mass.gov/dcr. For F.
