

Recertification Update

2022 vs 2023

Software: Jira platform	Software: New POST database platform
Chief Attestation form: Submitted with other recertification documents by June 15, 2022	Chief Attestation form: Submitted separately by May 1, 2023
Attestation: No signature sheet required for positive attestation to an officer's character/fitness. For negative or non-attestation, upload to JIRA portal	Attestation: No signature sheet required for positive attestation to an officer's character/fitness. For negative or non-attestation, upload to POST portal
Certification packet questionnaire (Part 1) had 15 questions	Certification packet questionnaire (Part 1): Similar to 2022, but some attestation questions are modified. There are 19 questions asked to improve POST data accuracy
Certification packet (Part 2): Officer questionnaire initially contained eight questions, but everyone ultimately answered six	No change. Certification packet (Part 2): Officer questionnaire/oral interview contains six questions
Timeline: Documentation packet available in May 2022 for June 2022 submission	Timeline: Recertification instructions available on POST website in early April. Virtual training sessions will be held in early May. POST portal opens May 22, 2023
Complete and upload template to JIRA	Worksheet will be provided for data collection. Agencies enter information directly into the POST portal. Agencies submitting for 100 or more officers will be offered a data migration option
Certifications available through JIRA portal July 1, 2022	By July 31, 2023, Certification notices will be emailed directly to officers and be available for download from the portal. Certification summary status reports will be sent via email to agencies
Deadline: June 15, 2022	Deadline: June 30, 2023