

Some families can get a child tax credit (CTC), too!

Your family may qualify for the CTC, which may reduce your tax by as much as $2,000 for each qualifying child.

Extra state benefit

When you qualify for the federal EITC, you automatically qualify for a Massachusetts tax credit (EIC) that will give you an extra 30% of your EITC check.
$3,526 turns into $4,583!

FACT

Millions of families who could claim the EITC don't, leaving billions of dollars behind. Don't lose out!

What is the EITC, and how can it help me?

The Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) is for people who work and meet certain income guidelines. You may get money back when you file your taxes and keep more of what you earned. It can make a big difference!

Learn more details and file for your tax credits at a free tax assistance site near you. There are about 300 in Massachusetts open during tax season. You may even get tax credits for the last two years.

Note: AGI means Adjusted Gross Income, MFJ means Married Filing Jointly.

No “qualifying children” (see box)	$15,570 ($21,370 if MFJ)	$529
One qualifying child	$41,094 ($46,884 if MFJ)	$3,526
Two qualifying children	$46,703 ($52,493 if MFJ)	$5,828
Three or more qualifying children	$50,162 ($55,952 if MFJ)	$6,557

Note: TAFDC, alimony and child support payments are not earned income and do not count towards the income limits.

How much money can I get back?

Your EITC check depends mainly on your family size and your 2019 earned income.

How do I know if I qualify for EITC?

- You must have worked and earned income
- The household members you claim must have Social Security numbers that are valid for employment
- You cannot be counted as a “child” by someone else

A “qualifying child” can be your:	At the end of 2019, a “qualifying child” must:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Biological or adopted child, stepchild, foster child, or a descendent of any of them, such as your grandchild; • Brother, half-brother, sister or half-sister, stepbrother or stepsister, or a descendent of any one of them, such as a niece or nephew. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Be younger than you; • Not have filed a joint return other than to claim a refund; • Be under 19, unless they are a full-time student under 24; or • Be any age and permanently disabled.

There are more rules about relationship, age, citizenship, disabilities and foreign income. A free tax preparer can explain these rules; or visit www.irs.gov/eitc for more information.

What if I file, but don’t owe any tax?

No problem. You may still be eligible to get the tax credits.

Will the EITC affect my benefits?

In Massachusetts, getting the federal EITC and the state EIC tax credit will not affect your eligibility for TAFDC, SNAP, Medicaid, SSI, or low-income housing.

(EITC and EIC do not count as income in determining eligibility for these benefits.)
