

SUMMARY OF NO. 25-34

This proposed law would prohibit the state from requiring any city or town to have a zoning district that permits six units or more per acre of land. The proposed law would also prohibit any property from having more than 10 units per acre unless the landowner obtains a special permit from their local zoning board of appeals, planning board, or other special permit granting authority.