

SUMMARY OF NO. 23-26

This proposed law would specify that rideshare and delivery drivers who accept requests through an online-enabled application are not "employees" and that rideshare and delivery companies are not "employers" for purposes of Massachusetts laws.