

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
invites applications for:

2021 Fire Lieutenant (3YP-442)

SALARY: Biweekly

OPENING DATE: 08/31/21

CLOSING DATE: 09/21/21 11:59 PM

DESCRIPTION:

Statewide Departmental Promotional Examination for Fire Lieutenant (3YP-442)

Examination Date: November 13, 2021

Application Open Date: August 31, 2021

Deadline To Apply: September 21, 2021

Examination Processing Fee: $250

Eligible List: Individuals placed on the resulting eligible list shall be eligible for certification from such list for such period as the administrator shall determine, but in any event not to exceed two years, unless otherwise outlined in MGL Chapter 31 § 25 or the Human Resources Division's (HRD) revocation policy.

Eligibility: To be eligible for this examination you must: (1) be an employee in the fire department for which the examination is given with permanent civil service status in the specified eligible title(s) by the date of the examination; and (2) have served in the force at least three years since your name was first certified in the eligible title(s), regardless of whether the certification resulted in your appointment to the eligible title(s).^{*} The eligible list establishment date is not the same as certified date. The certified date is when your name was first reachable on a certification for a promotional vacancy. A combination of temporary and permanent service can be applied towards meeting this twelve-month requirement. Time spent working in the title of Fire Lieutenant will not interrupt the service period in your permanent position. Eligible Title(s): See below.

^{*}If the eligible title has been lowered to the entry level rank you must have served in the force at least one or three years depending on the participating municipality.

Note: Pursuant to the provisions of Massachusetts General Law \(MGL\) 31 § 59, if less than four applications are received from eligible candidates, this examination will be postponed. If the examination's eligible title has been lowered to the entry level rank, the examination will go forward if less than four eligible candidates submit applications.

Weights: The examination weights are: 40% Written examination; 40% Assessment center 20% Education & Experience.

Candidates for this examination must be employees in one of the following Massachusetts Fire departments. Please read the below Department listing carefully.

Departments: Departments and eligible titles will be listed as they are requested.

Framingham - Firefighter

Peabody - Firefighter

TYPICAL QUALIFICATIONS:

Application: All applications must be received by the application deadline, and accompanied by an examination processing fee of $250. You will receive two confirmation emails when you have completed the process: one email confirming your application has been received, and one email confirming your payment has been received. Your application is not complete until you have received both confirmation emails. If you have not submitted payment of the examination processing fee on or before September 21, 2021, your application will not be accepted.

Education & Experience (E&E): All candidates must complete the 2021 Fire Lieutenant E&E Claim application online. Submitting an E&E claim in any way other than through the online claim process will result in a failed examination component. Instructions regarding this E&E Claim application will be emailed to candidates prior to the examination date. A confirmation email will be sent upon successful submission of an E&E Claim application.

All claims and supporting documentation must be received within seven calendar days following the examination. Supporting documentation must be scanned and attached to your application or sent to civilservice@mass.gov no later than November 20, 2021.

Please note that:

- E&E is an examination component, and therefore must be completed by the examinee.
- Failure to complete this component as instructed will result in a candidate not receiving any credit for E&E.
- Credit for E&E will be calculated for all candidates.

No phone calls or email inquiries regarding the content of this examination component will be accepted or responded to. Once you receive your examination mark, you will have 17 calendar days from the emailing of your mark to appeal in writing your E&E score.

Statutory Preference Points: Upon submission of written proof, two points will be added to the passing score of qualified Veterans and Disabled Veterans or individuals who have 25 years of service as a member of a regular police or fire force and have passed an examination for promotional appointment in such force. If you are qualified for both the Veteran's Preference and the Promotional Preference for 25 years of service, please be advised that two points are the maximum allowable number of points to be added to your passing, overall (general average) examination score. To claim the Promotional Preference for 25 years of service, candidates must claim this preference in the E&E Claim application and verify eligibility on the Employment Verification Form submitted for this examination. To claim veterans preference, claim veteran status in the application and attach your DD214 to your application or email it to civilservice@mass.gov. For more information on veteran status refer to the Military Information section on our website.

During the HRD review process or during the life of the applicable eligible list(s), candidates must make original supporting documentation available should the issue of authenticity arise with any submitted document copies.

Current Military Personnel: All military personnel who, in connection with current service, have military orders that indicate their unavailability due to military service on the examination date, must file an application and examination processing fee and request a makeup examination in writing, with a copy of your military orders attached. Please include in your request your email address, daytime base phone number and/or name and phone number of a friend or family member with whom you have regular contact and entrust with your personal communication. Requests filed after the application deadline (September 21, 2021), must be accompanied by a DD214 showing discharge within six months of the request and dates of active service that include the entire application period. Visit our website for more information: Military Information

Makeup Examination: With the exception of current military personnel as described above, no candidate has a right to a makeup examination due to personal or professional conflicts on the testing date. Candidates are advised to consider this before applying for the examination. If you file an examination application by the application deadline, but are unable to appear for the examination on the examination date due to an emergency or unanticipated hardship, you may request a makeup examination by filing a written request with verifiable documentation to HRD no later than seven calendar days from the original examination date. HRD reserves the right to approve or deny your request. HRD may require an additional examination processing fee upon approval of your request.

Reasonable Accommodations: If you need special testing accommodations due to a documented impairment, you must submit a letter of support from a qualified professional detailing what type of accommodation you require at the examination site, and such letter must be scanned and attached to the application or emailed to civilservice@mass.gov. Without such a letter, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to grant your accommodation. This information is requested only to provide reasonable accommodation for examinations and will not be used for any other purposes.

Refunds: There will be no refund of the examination processing fee unless the examination is cancelled by HRD.

Notice to Appear: Notices to Appear including time and location of examination will be emailed to candidates after the close of the application period, and prior to the examination date.

Updating Information: Candidates are responsible for maintaining accurate contact information. Failure to keep your records current may jeopardize opportunities for promotion. For information on how to update your information, click on Update Your Account.

Identification at the Examination Site: At the examination site, candidates must present current and valid photo identification with signature (e.g., driver's license, passport, military ID).

Private School or Service: HRD does not recommend or endorse any private school, service, or publisher offering preparation and/or publications for examinations and is not responsible for their advertising claims.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION:

Women, minorities, veterans, and people with disabilities are encouraged to apply.
