DISCUSSION

Licenses to sell alcoholic beverages are a special privilege subject to public regulation and control, Connolly v. Alcoholic Beverages Control Comm'n, 334 Mass. 613, 619 (1956), for which States have especially wide latitude pursuant to the Twenty-First Amendment to the United States Constitution. Opinion of the Justices, 368 Mass. 857, 861 (1975). The procedure for the issuance of licenses and required conduct of licensees who sell alcoholic beverages is set out in Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 138.

Chapter 138 gives the Commission the authority to grant, revoke and suspend licenses. Chapter 138 was "enacted ... to serve the public need and ... to protect the common good." M.G.L. c. 138, § 23. "[T]he purpose of discipline is not retribution, but the protection of the public." Arthurs v. Bd. of Registration in Medicine, 383 Mass. 299, 317 (1981). The Commission is given "comprehensive powers of supervision over licensees." Connolly, 334 Mass. at 617.

The law is well-settled that the responsibility of the licensee is to exercise sufficiently close supervision so that there is compliance with the law on the premises. A vendor who sells alcohol is "bound at his own peril to keep within the condition of his license." Commonwealth v. Gould, 158 Mass. 499, 507 (1893); Burlington Package Liquors, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverages Control Comm'n, 7 Mass. App. Ct. 186, 190 (1979). It is, thus, quite possible for a licensee to offend the regulatory scheme without scienter. Rico's of the Berkshires, Inc. v. Alcoholic Beverages Control Comm'n, 19 Mass. App. Ct. 1026, 1027 (1985).

GB LL Holdings MA LLC d/b/a goPuff, is charged with a violation of M.G.L. c 138, § 34 - Sale or delivery of an alcoholic beverage to a person under twenty-one (21) years of age. (19 counts). M.G.L. c. 138, § 34 states, in pertinent part, that: “[w]hoever makes a sale or delivery of any alcoholic beverage or alcohol to any person under twenty-one years of age ... shall be punished by a fine of not more than $2,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year or both.” M.G.L. c. 138, § 34.

GB Logistics LLC is charged with a violation of the aforementioned M.G.L. c. 138, § 34 – Sale or delivery of an alcoholic beverage to a person under twenty-one (21) years of age (19 counts) and a violation of M.G.L. c. 138 § 22 (6 counts). M.G.L. c. 138 § 22 states in pertinent part, that “Every person operating a vehicle when engaged in such transportation or delivery shall carry the vehicle permit or a certified copy thereof;...and shall, upon demand of any constable, policeman, member of the state police or any investigator of the commission produce such permit or copy for inspection; and failure to produce such permit or copy shall be prima facie evidence of unlawful transportation and shall, in the discretion of the commission, be sufficient cause for the suspension, cancellation, revocation or forfeiture of such permit.” M.G.L. c. 138, § 22.

The Commission was presented with evidence and the Licensees stipulated that they sold and/or delivered alcoholic beverages to multiple patrons under the age of twenty-one. Direct evidence was presented through the investigators’ testimony as to their observations regarding the sale and delivery of alcoholic beverages to persons under the age of twenty-one, as well as through documentation provided to Investigators by the Licensee. Said sales took place on 5 different dates. (Exhibits 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 8) The Commission is struck by the fact that Investigators notified goPuff’s Manager of Record after the first sale and/or delivery, and again after each sale and/or delivery that followed, but despite being informed of the initial sale and all that came after it, no action was seemingly taken to prevent additional sales and/or deliveries to patrons under the age of twenty-one. (See Id.)

The Commission is persuaded by the evidence that GB LL Holdings MA, LLC d/b/a goPuff and GB Logistics LLC sold and delivered alcoholic beverages to persons under twenty-one years of age. The Commission finds that the Licensees committed a violation of M.G.L. c. 138, § 34 - Sale or delivery of an alcoholic beverage to a person under twenty-one (21) years of age (19 counts) and M.G.L. c. 138 § 22 Every person operating a vehicle when engaged in such transportation or delivery shall carry the vehicle permit or a certified copy thereof; and shall, upon demand of any constable, policeman, member of the state police or any investigator of the commission produce such permit or copy for inspection; and failure to produce such permit or copy shall be prima facie evidence of unlawful transportation (6 counts).

CONCLUSION

Based on the evidence, the Commission finds GB LL Holdings MA LLC, d/b/a Go Puff violated M.G.L. Ch. 138 § 34 Sale or delivery of an alcoholic beverage to a person under twenty-one (21) years of age (19 counts).

Therefore, the Commission REVOKES the license of GB LL Holdings MA LLC, d/b/a Go Puff EFFECTIVE FORTHWITH
