

Greater Cambridge Energy Program

EVERSOURCE

Currently Under Construction!

Sign-up for Updates

The Greater Cambridge Energy Program includes construction of a first-of-its-kind underground substation in Kendall Square as well as five underground duct banks housing eight new 115-kilovolt (kV) transmission lines. The transmission lines will interconnect existing substations in Cambridge, Somerville, and Allston-Brighton.

Project Website