Confidence in the Wild: Reimagining Life Outdoors for Adults Ages 55+

Wednesday, October 7, 9:45 am to 12:00 pm

Confidence in the Wild is a new DCR introductory outdoor access and skills program designed for adults ages 55 and older who want to connect, or reconnect, with the great outdoors.

Join DCR on October 7th for a hands-on birdwatching opportunity. Learn about using binoculars, identifying birds, birdwatching techniques, and birding ethics. Then enjoy some time observing and identifying birds at Halibut Point State Park

To register, contact Amy at (508) 272-9376 or Amy.Wilmot@mass.gov. For adults ages 55 and older. We will provide all instructional equipment including binoculars and birding field guides. Please arrive promptly for mandatory safety and orientation information. Dress for the weather; rain will cancel.
