Bulk Filing Meals Tax (MLS) Returns & Payments Guide

(For Tax Periods Prior to January 1, 2022)

General Information

This user's guide is designed to provide submitters with specifications and requirements for electronically filing multiple Massachusetts meals returns and/or ACH debit payments for tax periods prior to January 1, 2022. This handbook is not recommended for individuals who want to file single returns. For those individuals, it is recommended to file electronically directly online using MassTaxConnect.

Please note that filers who are already remitting payments electronically through ACH credit may continue to do so. However, regardless of payment method, a return must be filed. Also note that submitting returns and/or payments electronically by any means does not affect due dates or filing frequencies, which still must comply with Massachusetts tax guidelines.

Filing multiple meals returns and/or debit payments electronically will be submitted through MassTaxConnect. This will allow businesses to submit bulk files securely over the Internet to the Massachusetts Department of Revenue. Submitters remitting tax payments via ACH Debit must make certain that the bank information (RTN & account number) has been registered on the user's profile on the MassTaxConnect application.

Who Should File

Massachusetts imposes a sales tax on meals sold by or purchased from restaurants or any part of a store considered by Massachusetts law to be a restaurant. Generally, a food product commonly thought of as a grocery item is exempt from the sales tax on meals. More detailed information regarding the sales tax on meals is contained in Regulation 830 CMR 64H.6.5: Sales Tax on Meals. Anyone who sells meals that are subject to sales tax in Massachusetts is a meals tax "vendor." If a liquor license holder operates a restaurant where meals are served, the holder of the license is presumed to be the meals tax vendor, whether the meals are served by the license holder or by a concessionaire. The tax must be separately stated and separately charged on all invoices, bills, displays, or contracts except on those solely for alcoholic beverages.

Making Advance Payments

This file format accommodates filing both payments and returns. These can be filed together or separately, by making use of the Y/N Flags within the file as follows:

To make advance payments for meals tax, you should set the return flag (at position 57) to "N", and set the payment flag (at position 166) to "Y" for each location. The payment will be processed, and the return values will be ignored.

To file the monthly return for meals tax, you should set the return flag (at position 57) to "Y", and set the payment flag (at position 166) to "Y" if making a payment for the remaining amount due. Otherwise Payment would be "N". The values of the return should reflect the entire period as usual.

If any changes or adjustments need to be made to the return after it has been submitted, they can also be submitted using this file format. But the changes will only be accepted if the amended return flag (at position 260) is set to "Y". If you accidentally send a monthly return along with an advance payment before the period end date, this would be the way to remedy the situation.

ASCII Text Format

Files must be submitted in ASCII text format. The file consists of two types of records:

- Each file must have a header record as the first record. The data within the header record identifies the type of file and the transmitter of the file.
- Each file must have a minimum of one return or payment record.
- The data within each subsequent detail record identifies a single tax return and/or payment.

The total width of each record is 280 characters in length. Data must be entered in each field at the exact position in the record layout. A carriage return and line feed must appear immediately after the last character of each record. The carriage return and line feed character will be placed in position 281 and 282, respectively. Do not place more than one carriage return and line feed combination following a record. Do not place any other type of delimiters between fields within a record (commas, quotation marks, and etc.).

The data within each detail record identifies the taxpayer's information:

- The taxpayer's primary identification number.
- Business information. Tax liability.
- Payment data, if applicable.

Multiple detail records are given a sequence number; the sequence number field is used to identify a particular record within a file.

Dollar amounts and all monetary fields are strictly numeric. They include dollars and cents with the decimal point assumed. Do not use punctuation in any fields.

Instructions for uploading a bulk file

Once you are logged into MassTaxConnect, find the I Want To... section located at the top right corner of the page. You will find the option to Submit a Bulk Meals File. Note that you may first have to click the Show More Options hyperlink.

Follow the instructions to complete the bulk filing process.

There are two rounds of file validation. The first round occurs during the attachment process. Files are scrutinized on the attachment process to reduce the chance of errors before processing. The second round occurs after the submission of the request during the Department of Revenue's nightly system processing.

MassTaxConnect will perform an initial validation on the file through its attachment process. If errors are found, they will be displayed in a list found on the Errors tab. You are then required to correct all errors before MassTaxConnect will allow the file to be submitted.

Examples of errors that may occur can be found in the appendix section of this document.

You will be allowed to submit the bulk filing request for files that have passed the initial validation. During the Department of Revenue's nightly system processing, the files will be sent through a second round of validation. If any errors are found during this round, an eMessage will be sent to your MassTaxConnect account. The eMessage will contain a text file attachment of the records that failed along with a short description of the error in the detail record.

MassTaxConnect will allow up to two files to be submitted in one request, none of which can be larger than 5 megabytes.

Test Files

Test files are not permitted in MassTaxConnect. Although test files are not permitted, most of the file errors can be found through the attachment process. In this situation, do not submit the bulk filing request. The files submitted through the bulk filing request will be treated as live data.

Amended Returns/Final Returns

When uploading a bulk file, you will have the ability to amend a previously filed return. You may also mark a return as a final return if you are ceasing your account. The text file layout below will tell you where and how you will need to mark the file for it to be considered amended.
