Project Background & Update February 2023

Project Labor Agreement – Small Enterprise Contracts

- Small Business Enterprise Contracts - Opportunities for MBE/WBE/VBE Non-Signatories: The PLA includes Small Business Enterprise Contract provisions that provide Supplier Diversity Office certified MBE, WBE and VBE firms that are not union signatories the ability to use their existing workforce on the Holyoke Soldiers' Home Project (Project), rather than having to hire workers unknown to them through the union halls. The Small Business Enterprise Contract provisions are limited to contracts of $1,000,000 and under. Under these provisions, firms pay their employees the legally required prevailing wage, can maintain their existing employee benefits and are not subject to paying into union benefits funds for their workforce. This opportunity is a first in a PLA in Massachusetts and provides non-signatory MBE, WBE and VBE firms and their employees meaningful opportunities to work on the Project. (Article II, sections 8 & 9)

Project Labor Agreement – Core Employees

- Core Employee Provisions: Allows firms that are not union signatories, including MBE, WBE and VBE firms with contracts over the Small Business Enterprise Contract dollar cap, the ability to staff the Project by utilizing up to four members of their existing workforce. Firms can bring in a one-to-one ratio of one existing employee then one worker from the union hall, followed by another existing employee then another worker from the union hall, with a cap of up to four of the firm's existing workforce per trade. Beyond those first eight workers, the remainder would come from the union hall. This provision is the first of its kind in Massachusetts and will provide opportunities for non-union signatories and workers, including MBE/WBE/VBE firms, that would not otherwise participate on the Project. Under the core worker provisions non-signatory firms must make the same benefit fund payments to the applicable union benefit funds on behalf of their up to four existing employees, as they would have had the workers been referred from the union membership, irrespective of the benefits the firm itself already provides those employees. (Article IV, sections 9 & 10)

Project Labor Agreement – Apprenticeship Commitments

- Expanded Apprenticeship Opportunities:

The PLA includes a commitment to expanding the pool of workers in the construction trades with a commitment to achieving 20% apprenticeship participation on the Project and with the further commitment that of those apprentices 40% will be minorities, women, or veterans. While the Project is subject to the current state workforce goals of 15.3% minority and 6.9% women workers, the PLA includes a Veteran workforce goal of 7%. These commitments will not only increase opportunities and participation, they will also provide minority, women and veteran workers unprecedented access to enter careers in the construction industry. (Article XII and Appendix C)

40% - apprentices minorities,

Project Labor Agreement – Outreach and Training

- Outreach and Training:

These include working with other organizations and programs that provide pre-apprenticeship and apprenticeship training opportunities and to minorities, women and workers interested in working on the Project or in the entering the construction trades. Every worker on the Project will receive training on diversity, discrimination and creating and maintaining a respectful jobsite. (Article III, Article XII, Appendix C)

Business Participation Goals

MBE 4.7%

WBE 7.7%

VBE 3.0%

Project Workforce Goals

Minority Workers 15.3%
