

July 2025 PROGRAMS

All programs are free and open to the public. An adult must accompany children. Programs meet at various locations throughout the reservation; locations are noted with programs. Inclement weather may cancel programs. Schedule is subject to change. Parking fee applies, except where otherwise noted.

ADA/Reasonable Accommodation
617-645-0358 | Moneesha.dasgupta2@mass.gov

DAILY PROGRAMS

MondaysJuly 7July 14July 21July 28	Beach Exploration 10:00 am—11:00 amMeet at the end of the boardwalk leading to beach (B1 on map)Horseneck Beach is a dynamic landscape, made up of many different pieces. Get a glimpse into the ways these elements work together to create this special place that we all love to visit.
TuesdaysJuly 3July 10July 24	Beach Exploration 10:00 am—11:00 amMeet at the end of the boardwalk leading to beach (B1 on map)Horseneck Beach is a dynamic landscape, made up of many different pieces. Get a glimpse into the ways these elements work together to create this special place that we all love to visit. Gooseberry Island Hike , 1:00 pm—2:00pmMeet at Gooseberry Island gravel parking lot (B2 on map). Parking is limited and available first come, first served.Gooseberry Island has been many things. How did it end up as a state park? Join a park interpreter to understand how it came to be what it is today. A moderate 1.5-mile hike on pebbles and sand. For adults and older children. Wrackline: Trash or Treasure, 2:30 pm—3:30 pmMeet at the end of the boardwalk leading to beach (B1 on map)Ever stumble upon fascinating discoveries while on your hunt for shells? What stories can this stuff tell? Let's walk the high tide line, also called the wrack line, to see what can be found. All ages.
Wednesdays through Sundays	Life Saving Station, 1:00 pm—4:00 pmLocated at 241 East Beach Avenue, Westport (B4 on map).Visit the Horseneck Point Life Saving Station, an important part of Westport's maritime history. See incredible photographs and explore exhibits from the Buzzards Bay Coalition.Subject to staff availability.
SaturdaysJuly 5July 12July 19July 26	Campfire Storytime, 7:00 pm—8:00 pmMeet in the campground, at the fire pit next to the bath house (B3 on map).Stories are a great way to understand our surroundings. Watch a park interpreter use picture books to present different environmental lessons. For young campers and their families.

PROGRAMS CONTINUE ON NEXT PAGE

coming events

July 2025 PROGRAMS

All programs are free and open to the public. An adult must accompany children. Programs meet at various locations throughout the reservation; locations are noted with programs. Inclement weather may cancel programs. Schedule is subject to change. Parking fee applies, except where otherwise noted.

ADA/Reasonable Accommodation

617-645-0358 | Moneesha.dasgupta2@mass.gov

CONTINUED FROM PREVIOUS PAGE

DAILY PROGRAMS
Sundays July 6 July 13 July 20 July 27	Gooseberry Island Hike , 9:00 am—10:00am Meet at Gooseberry Island gravel parking lot (B2 on map). Parking is limited and available first come, first served. Gooseberry Island has been many things. How did it end up as a state park? Join a park interpreter to understand how it came to be what it is today. A moderate 1.5-mile hike on pebbles and sand. For adults and older children. Move over for Plovers, 11:00 am—12:00 pm Meet on the beach between Lifeguard 6 & 7 (B3 on map). After traveling hundreds of miles from their winter territory, plovers have arrived at Horseneck Beach to lay their eggs. Drop by this station and see what makes these tiny birds a huge deal. This is a drop-in program; please feel free to visit for as long as you'd like.
Sundays July 6 July 13 July 27	Wrack Line: Trash or Treasure, 1:30 pm—2:30 pm Meet at the end of the boardwalk leading to beach (B1 on map) Ever stumble upon fascinating discoveries while on your hunt for shells? What stories can this stuff tell? Let's walk the high tide line, also called the wrack line, to see what can be found. All ages.