

Massachusetts Office of Tax Policy Analysis: Economics / Programming Interns (paid internship positions)

At its Boston location, the Office of Tax Policy Analysis (OTPA) within the Massachusetts Department of Revenue accepts applications for paid intern positions. The OTPA provides tax revenue forecasts, statistics on the Massachusetts tax system, and estimates the fiscal impact of tax law changes. Interns work closely with the economists group and/or statisticians, providing support for various projects relating to the tax system in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Requirements for the Internship:

OTPA is seeking interns interested in tax policy issues. Successful applicants typically have taken course work in Economics or Data Management, or have a demonstrated interest in the research. Applicants currently in Masters' and PhD programs or recent graduates preferred.

Applicants should have a working knowledge of software applications such as Excel, and Word and also possess effective communication skills. Additional knowledge of Access database software, or of a statistical application such as SAS or E-Views, is a plus but not required.

To apply, please send the following documents to OTPA at the address listed below:

- Cover letter stating interest in taxation policy
- Resume

Your resume will be kept on file if no position is available.
