Indicator #	L48
Indicator	HRC
Issue Identified	Over the past two years, the Committee met seven times, rather than the eight required. The meeting scheduled for December 2021 was initially rescheduled for January 2022, due to scheduling conflicts. However, in January 2022, the Human Rights Coordinator and some other Committee Members and Officers were diagnosed with Covid-19 and that meeting was cancelled. Also, for one meeting, held on March 15, 2023, the Clinician on the committee was not present. For all other meetings all required committee members were present. The quorum for committee members was met for all meetings.
Actions Planned/Occurred	Efforts will be made to ensure that all required committee members attend all meetings, the quorum is met, and no future meetings are cancelled.
Status at follow-up	The agencies human rights committee met all mandates, including the mandates for membership and attention.
