Tenant Consent Form for Landlord-Initiated Emergency Housing Payment Assistance Applications

Dear Tenant,

Your landlord has started an Emergency Housing Payment Assistance application for you. Emergency Rental Assistance Program (ERAP), Residential Assistance for Families in Transition (RAFT) and Emergency Rent and Mortgage Assistance (ERMA) (together, "Emergency Housing Payment Assistance") are Massachusetts programs that provide financial assistance to eligible households facing a housing crisis, and can be used for things like paying rent in the future, paying rent owed (overdue rent or "arrear"), or for some other housing-related costs. If you would like more information about these programs, as well as other programs to help you stay in your home, visit www.mass.gov/COVIDHousingHelp or call 211.

You do not have to apply for or accept Emergency Housing Payment Assistance; however, if you do not pay rent or mortgage that is overdue, you may face eviction or foreclosure. Additionally, not paying past due rent ("arrear") can harm your credit and ability to get housing in the future. You can also apply for Emergency Housing Payment Assistance yourself. If you're interested in knowing more about these programs, call 211.

If you would like to permit your landlord to proceed to file an application on your behalf, please answer the following questions and sign this form.

1. COVID-19

Being affected by COVID is not a requirement for benefits, but does affect which program(s) you may be eligible for. Please check off the box below if you, the tenant's, situation was caused, directly or indirectly, or made worse by COVID-19.

- I have not applied for RAFT or ERMA, or I have received RAFT/ERMA/ERAP before but I need it again.
