D. Legislative Update –Counsel Steve Rourke

- Nothing new to report

E. DFS Update –Fire Marshal Ostroskey

- We are pleased to report the release of $4.1 million in fire grant award funding. Funds will be used to support the Commonwealth's fire departments.
- Continuing to work on the PFAS project in Stow and are also working with fire departments on PFAS work with regard to firefighting foam.
- We are continuing our projects in Bridgewater and making progress.
- The department is continuing to work on the Search & Rescue AFG funded project.
- We have made good progress on the Mobile Extractor project and will hopefully come to fruition by the end of the month.
- The agency has participated in the Joint Ways and Means budget hearing for public safety and our budget came away in good shape.

F. Academy Activities Report –Deputy Fire Marshal Fournier

- Assignment list for Career Recruit is 157; we are filling July at all three campuses. We have changed the class size in Stow to 24 effective May 10 to be more prepared for the new hires off the civil service list.
- The CT scan program is a big hit; we are up to 435 firefighters approved for the scan through UMass.
- The MFA is currently offering 43 classes virtually and there's 22 in development. We've heard from several communities that they're happy to have virtual offerings.
- Dave Clemons and myself have vetted the MFA director applicants. Round 1 will consist of nine interviews. Once the round 1 screening process is complete, I will be part of round 2 interviews. Chairman Medeiros asked about the timeline for director interviews and council member participation. Deputy Marshal indicated participation in round 2.

- Class size for campuses – Bridgewater campus will remain at 18; Stow will be bumped up to 24 and depending on need, Springfield can go up to 32.
- Assistant Chief Connerty – there were Instructor certifications done – are there plans for a Fire Instructor class being run. Class is under development due to the updated standard but the Deputy Marshal will get back to the Chief.
