

2014 Massachusetts Trails Conference
MIXin' it UP – Along Our Trails

PRESENTER BIOS

Sheri Bean is a Transportation Planner at the Montachusett Regional Planning Commission and works directly with 22 communities to assist with planning and alternate modes of transportation. She assists Massachusetts' new focus on Mode Shift to a Healthier State by creating fun and safe ways for people to get around using Safe Routes to School and Complete Streets/Walkability programs. A graduate of Worcester State College, Sheri Co-Chairs the Montachusett Regional Trail Coalition. sbean@mrpc.org 978-345-7376 x315

Pleun Clara Bouricius is Director of Grants and Programs at Mass Humanities. Before that she was a carpenter; a truck driver; managed the Women, Enterprise, and Society project at Baker Library at Harvard Business School; and taught in the History and Literature, and Women's Studies Programs at Harvard University and the Harvard Extension School. She has a PhD in American Studies from Harvard University, and a BA in history, women's studies, and photography from Montclair State College, New Jersey. She lives in Plainfield, MA and is curator of the Plainfield Historical Society pbouricius@masshumanities.org 413-584-8440 x106

Electa Tritsch is a landscape historian who works with Massachusetts communities and organizations involved in land and cultural resource planning. Her independent video series, Tracks in Time, provides outdoor enthusiasts and armchair hikers with new ways of experiencing the land around them. Electa has a master's degree in New England Studies from B.U. She lives in Concord and currently chairs the Concord Historical Commission. e.tritsch@comcast.net www.oakfieldresearch.com 978-371-2128

Mark Mandeville & Raianne Richards are a nationally touring folk songwriters and co-founders of the Massachusetts Walking Tour. Mandeville and Richards have organized an annual non-profit bipedal concert tour of Massachusetts in support of arts and culture for towns throughout the state. These free community concerts collaborate with local artists, musicians, educational programs, trail managers and land trust groups to highlight artistic diversity and recreational land use. People do ask "so you actually walk?" YES, with our instruments, and camping gear, to each and every show - and after 8-13 miles of hiking roads and trailways, we perform a concert. For more info: www.masswalkingtour.org and raiannerichards@gmail.com and www.markmandeville.com

Co-Chairs

Charles Tracy is a National Park Service landscape architect who guides community trail development and regional landscape conservation initiatives in New England. Tracy is currently superintendent of the New England National Scenic Trail and national lead for NPS artist-in-residence programs and art partnerships. He holds master's degrees in landscape architecture from the University of Massachusetts and in classics from the University of Texas. charles_tracy@nps.gov 617-223- 5210

Maud V. Ayson - After a career in teaching and school administration, Maud followed her passion for learning and community building in a second career holding senior leadership positions at Old Sturbridge Village, Museum of the City of New York, The Norman Rockwell Museum, and at Fruitlands Museum. Presently Consulting Program Director for Freedom's Way National Heritage Area, she serves on the boards of The Bulfinch Fund, Montachusett Regional Trails Coalition, Monadnock Media, and Red Tomato, Inc. maud.ayson@gmail.com (h) 978-772-5812 www.freedomsway.org