The Commissioner of Banks (“Commissioner”) having determined that MONEY’S WORTH, CO., (“Money’s Worth” or the “Licensee”), with its main address located at 105 Sockanosset Cross Road, Cranston, Rhode Island has engaged in, or is engaging in, or is about to engage in, acts or practices constituting violations of Massachusetts General Laws chapter 255E and applicable regulations found at 209 CMR 42.00 et seq., hereby issues the following FINDINGS OF FACT AND TEMPORARY ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST (“Temporary Order”) pursuant to General Laws chapter 255E, section 7(b).and chapter 255F, section 8(b).

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Division of Banks (“Division”), through the Commissioner, has jurisdiction over the licensing and regulation of persons and entities engaged in the business of a mortgage lender and mortgage broker in Massachusetts pursuant to Massachusetts General Laws chapter 255E, section 2.

2. The Division, through the Commissioner, also has jurisdiction over the licensing and regulation of persons engaged in the business of a mortgage loan originator in Massachusetts pursuant to Massachusetts General Laws chapter 255F, section 2.

3. Money's Worth is, and at all relevant times has been, a Massachusetts licensed mortgage broker doing business in the Commonwealth.

A. Failure to Obtain and Maintain a Surety Bond

4. Effective as of December 31, 2008, the Division's regulation 209 CMR 42.06(2)(a) states, in part:

An Applicant [for a license as a mortgage broker] shall demonstrate and maintain: . . . 2. a bond of $75,000 in such form and with such sureties as may be approved by the Commissioner. The surety bond must contain a clause that the insurance company will notify the Commissioner at least 30 days prior to canceling the surety bond for any reason. The Commissioner shall automatically suspend the license on the date the cancellation takes effect, unless the surety bond has been replaced or renewed.

5. The amendments to 209 CMR 42.06(2)(a) followed a public hearing held on July 10, 2007, by the Division for the purpose of affording all interested parties an opportunity to provide oral and written testimony regarding the proposed amendments to 209 CMR 42.00 et seq., including the surety bond requirement. The public hearing was followed by a 10-day comment period which remained open until July 20, 2007.

6. Upon finalization of the amendments to 209 CMR 42.00 et seq., the Division issued an Industry Letter dated September 10, 2007 and distributed to all lender and broker licensees at the time, providing advance notice to mortgage lenders and brokers of the substantial revisions to the Division's regulations, including the necessity to obtain the surety bond, stating, in part:

Any entity licensed on or before September 7th will be required to comply with the new net worth and surety bond requirements by December 31, 2008....Conducting business without obtaining the surety bond is a violation of the above cited regulation. The Division considers failure to obtain said surety bond a serious violation.

7. The Division's Regulatory Bulletin 5.2-101: Bond Requirements for Licensed Mortgage Lenders and Mortgage Brokers, issued on January 24, 2008, states, in part:

Pursuant to the Division's regulation 209 CMR 42.06(2)(a)(2), as a condition of obtaining and holding a mortgage broker license, a mortgage broker must establish and maintain a corporate surety bond of $75,000. The duration of the corporate surety bond must be continuous and shall be issued by a bonding company or insurance company authorized to do business in Massachusetts.

8. On or about October 30, 2008, the Division sent detailed instructions to all licensed mortgage brokers and mortgage lenders regarding the 2009 license renewal application process, which included the following directive: "LICENSEES MUST HAVE EXECUTED SURETY BONDS IN PLACE BY DECEMBER 31, 2008." [Emphasis in original.]

9. On or about February 20, 2009, the Division sent additional information and instructions to all licensed mortgage brokers and mortgage lenders regarding the 2009 renewal requirements. The instructions provided that licensees must mail the original notarized surety bond to the Division by March 31, 2009.

10. On or about April 30, 2009, the Division sent notices to all licensed mortgage brokers and mortgage lenders who had not filed the required surety bond with the Division. The April 30, 2009 notice provided such licensees with additional time to submit the required surety bond(s) and stated, in part, that:

[A]n original, notarized corporate surety bond . . . must be submitted to the Division by Friday, May 15, 2009. ... [T]he necessity to obtain the corporate surety bond is a requirement for all mortgage broker and mortgage lender licensees as a condition of maintaining the license, without exception. [Emphasis in original.]

11. As of the date of this Temporary Order, Money's Worth has failed to file with the Division the required corporate surety bond.

B. Failure to Submit Financial Statements as Required

12. The Division's regulation 209 CMR 42.06(2)(b)3 states:

3. Renewal Applications. Within 90 days of the close of its fiscal year, an Applicant for [mortgage broker] license renewal shall submit financial statements for the preceding fiscal year that have been audited or reviewed by an independent certified public accountant and such other financial information as the Commissioner may require. [Emphasis supplied.]

13. On or about October 30, 2008, the Division sent detailed instructions to all licensed mortgage brokers and mortgage lenders regarding the 2009 license renewal application process.

14. The license renewal instructions notified each recipient that by December 31, 2008, all mortgage lender and mortgage broker licensees were required to establish compliance with 209 CMR 42.03 and 209 CMR 42.06, respectively, including the requirement to submit to the Division audited or reviewed financial statements, as determined by the type of license(s) held, within ninety (90) days of the end of a licensee's fiscal year end.

15. On or about February 20, 2009, the Division sent instructions to all licensed mortgage brokers and mortgage lenders regarding the 2009 license renewal requirements.

Pursuant to the instructions contained therein, all licensed mortgage brokers and mortgage lenders with a fiscal year end date of December 31st were directed to file through the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System (NMLS) the required financial statements between March 9th and March 31, 2009. All licensed mortgage brokers and mortgage lenders with a fiscal year end date other than December 31st were directed to submit directly to the Division their financial statements prepared for the twelve-month period ending December 31, 2008.

16. On March 31, 2009, Money's Worth uploaded internally prepared financial statements through the NMLS. These financial statements are insufficient, as they were not audited or reviewed by an independent certified public accountant as required.

17. As of the date of this Temporary Order, the Licensee has failed to provide the required financial statements to fulfill the Division's license renewal requirements.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

18. Based upon the information contained in Paragraphs 1 through 17, by failing to obtain and maintain a surety bond, Money's Worth has violated 209 CMR 42.06(2)(a).

19. Based upon the information contained in Paragraphs 1 through 17, by failing to file a surety bond with the Division on or before May 15, 2009, Money's Worth has failed to satisfy the Division's filing requirements for licensed mortgage lenders and mortgage brokers which are a condition of holding the license(s) for the license period ending December 31, 2009.

20. Based upon the information contained in Paragraphs 1 through 17, engaging in further activity under the mortgage license(s) without a surety bond, and in the absence of the intended protections of such bond for the consumers of the Commonwealth, would constitute the operation of the licensed business in a financially irresponsible manner in violation of the Division's regulation 209 CMR 42.06(2)(a)2.

21. Based upon the information contained in Paragraphs 1 through 17, by failing to file the financial statements that are required pursuant to the license renewal process, Money's Worth has violated 209 CMR 42.06(2)(b)3.

22. Based upon the information contained in Paragraphs 1 through 17, the Commissioner has determined that:

- (a) Money's Worth has engaged in, is engaging in, or is about to engage in, acts or practices which warrant the belief that it is not operating honestly, fairly, soundly and efficiently in the public interest in violation of standards governing the licensing and conduct of a mortgage broker including, but not limited to, the provisions of the Division's regulations at 209 CMR 42.00 et seq.; and
- (b) The public interest will be irreparably harmed by delay in issuing an ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST to Money's Worth.

23. Based upon the information contained in Paragraphs 1 through 17, had the facts and conditions found therein existed at the time of Money's Worth's original mortgage broker license application, the Commissioner would have been warranted in refusing to issue such license. Further, the facts and conditions set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 17 present sufficient grounds for the revocation of Money's Worth's mortgage broker license pursuant to Massachusetts General Laws chapter 255E, section 6 and the Division's regulation at 209 CMR 42.07(2)(b).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a hearing will be scheduled on this matter to determine whether or not such Temporary Order shall become permanent and final only upon receipt of a written request for such a hearing from Money's Worth within twenty (20) days of the effective date of this Temporary Order.
