("CLEC") that either contemplates or is considering offering Digital Subscriber Line ("DSL") service using the lines of Bell Atlantic - Massachusetts.

Under Sections 251 and 252 of the Telecommunications Act of 1996, CLECs have a right to use Bell Atlantic's transmission loops and other facilities to provide DSL service on rates, terms and conditions that are just and reasonable and nondiscriminatory. See 47 U.S.C. § 251(c)(2). The intervening CLECs intend to seek such relief in this proceeding. If the Department initiates an investigation into the rates proposed herein for DSL service by Bell Atlantic, these CLECs presently contemplate submitting evidence in accordance with the scope of the proceeding as defined by the Department. The intervening CLECs intend in any event to participate as full parties.

CONCLUSION

For the forgoing reasons, CoreComm Massachusetts, Inc.; Mpower Communications, Inc., and Votts Networks, Inc., respectfully request that the Department grant them the right to intervene as full parties in this proceeding.

Respectfully submitted
