Locations: Central Massachusetts

Job Details

Position Overview:

As a Law Enforcement Officer with the MSPCA-Angell, you'll have the opportunity to make a real difference by helping animals, supporting families, and building stronger, more humane communities across Massachusetts. You will also have the benefit of a consistent weekday schedule, the ability to work primarily out of a home office and a take home vehicle. We are looking for someone who can work from a home office in Central Massachusetts.

Duties:

- Investigate reports of animal cruelty or neglect and take appropriate action to ensure animal safety and well-being.
- Work alongside community organizations, social service providers, and local agencies to offer both enforcement and compassionate support.
- Provide resources to help families keep their pets at home by including access to veterinary care, food, and other critical services.
- Educate the public and assist in community outreach efforts to raise awareness and prevent harm before it happens.
- Safely handle, transport, and care for animals in the field.
- Serve as a visible, trusted resource for humane law enforcement across your region.

Benefits:

- Consistent Schedule –Monday–Friday daytime hours with rare evening or weekend response.
- Assigned take home vehicle
- Supportive Work Environment – Join a team that values collaboration, empathy, and professionalism.
- Field-Based - Focus your time in the community where it is needed most by responding to calls in your assigned area from your home office
- Meaningful Impact – Help vulnerable animals and people every day, and be part of a mission that truly matters.

What we are looking for:

We're seeking someone who:

- Is currently certified in Massachusetts as a Full-Time Police Officer by POST.
- Has at least one year of experience in law enforcement or investigations.
- Communicates clearly and calmly in difficult situations.
- Approaches each case with empathy, professionalism, and sound judgment.
- Works well independently but also values being part of a team.
- Brings a genuine passion for both animal welfare and public service.
- Fluency in Spanish is preferred

Requirements:

- Valid MA driver's license and a Class A License to Carry.
- Current CPR and first aid certification.
- Ability to pass a physical and psychological fitness evaluation per POST standards.
- Comfortable lifting up to 75 lbs. and working in a variety of environments.
- Willing to relocate to Central Massachusetts and respond to reports of animal cruelty and neglect.
- Ability to pass a full background check, including fingerprinting and employment history review.

If you're looking for a role where your law enforcement experience can change lives for both animals and people, we'd love to hear from you.
