Disaster Finance

Curriculum development is underway for NEMTEC's next course offering.

NEMTEC, guided by an instructional design team of subject matter experts, state and municipal stakeholders, and instructors, recently began the process of developing curriculum for a course entitled It Pays to Prepare: An Overview of Community Disaster Finance. This 4-hour course will be delivered virtually, highlighting the financial considerations and best practices of disaster preparation, response, and recovery. The target audience includes local government emergency management directors, accountants, auditors, and procurement officers throughout New England. Look for the Disaster Finance course to be piloted this quarter, with full offerings expected in FY25!

A collaborative training center for a more prepared region

NEMTEC On the Road

The NEMTEC team has been on the road the past few months to promote emergency management training opportunities throughout New England. Both the Fire Chiefs Association of Massachusetts 2024 Professional Development Conference and the Massachusetts Association of HAZMAT Technicians 2024 New England HAZMAT Conference featured engaging presentations on the future of training and response for emergency managers from leading experts and practitioners in the field. Look for the NEMTEC team at the 2024 Maine Partners in Emergency Preparedness Conference this May!
